Portugal SB07 2007 temples are the most prestigious buildings in the urban landscape of ancient italy emerging within a network of centres of the then known mediterranean world notwithstanding the fragmentary condition of the buildings remains these monuments and especially their richly decorated roofs are crucial sources of information on the constitution of political social and craft identities acting as agents in displaying the meaning of images the subject of this volume is thematic and includes material from the eastern mediterranean including greece and turkey contributors discuss the network between patron elites and specialized craft communities that were responsible for the sophisticated terracotta decoration of temples in italy between 600 and 100 bc focusing on the mobility of craft people and craft traditions and techniques asking how images iconographies practices and materials can be used to explain the organization of ancient production distribution and consumption special attention has been given to relations with the eastern mediterranean greece and anatolia investigating craft communities workshop organizations and networks has never been thoroughly undertaken for this period and region nor for this exceptionally rich category of materials or for the craftspeople producing the architectural terracottas papers in this volume aim to improve our understanding of roof production and construction in this period to reveal relationships between main production centres and to study the possible influences of immigrant craftspeople

Monumenta miscellanea varia 1764 during the late byzantine period 1261 1453 a significant number of texts were translated from latin but also from arabic and other languages into greek most of them are still unedited or available in editions that do not meet the modern academic criteria nowadays these translations are attracting scholarly attention as it is widely recognized that besides their philological importance per se they can shed light on the cultural interactions between late byzantines and their neighbours or predecessors to address this desideratum this volume focuses on the cultural context the translators and the texts produced during the palaeologan era extending as well till the end of 15th c in ex byzantine territories by shedding light on the translation activity of late byzantine scholars this volume aims at revealing the cultural aspect of late byzantine openness to its neighbours

Annuaire Téléphonique International 1961 non c è alcun pezzo di società che possa dirsi impermeabile al contagio mafioso tutti sono esposti al virus criminale sia in calabria che fuori dalla calabria attenzione questo non significa che tutta la società è contagiata significa che è tutta esposta al rischio del contagio con un esperienza maturata alla procura di palermo giuseppe pignatone e michele prestipino sono i magistrati che hanno portato in calabria i metodi investigativi messi a punto da giovanni falcone e paolo borsellino contro cosa nostra con le loro indagini hanno rivelato la faccia torbida delle relazioni tra la ndrangheta e il paese ufficiale non soltanto imprenditori e politici ma perfino ufficiali dei carabinieri magistrati e collaboratori dei servizi segreti pronti al doppio gioco per favorire le latitanze dei boss e gli affari delle cosche un gioco pericoloso dal quale la ndrangheta è uscita spesso vincente perché ha contagiato trasversalmente tutta la società in queste pagine il racconto curato da gaetano savatteri preciso e puntuale ricco di osservazioni in presa diretta e con rivelazioni inedite dei due magistrati sulle ragioni per cui la ndrangheta è riuscita a infiltrarsi anche nelle regioni più ricche d'italia come la lombardia il piemonte e la liguria con un sistema di colonizzazione rigidamente regolato a milano si guadagna in aspromonte si decide un sistema antichissimo capace di stare al passo con i tempi forse la sfida più difficile dello stato che impegna tutta l'italia sulla frontiera di Reggio Calabria

Rome and the Colonial City 2022-05-05 it is universally recognised that venice and its lagoon are of such value that they constitute an international public good that must be preserved for humanity as a whole but such an ambitious task requires a diversified sustainable set of economic activities mostly focused on the production of services and non material goods this complex issue is analyzed using different approaches with a discussion of the case of venice as an example of some of the most relevant problems concerning the relation between the environment and development in the contemporary world the trade off between preserving an ecosystem and considering it as an economic resource the evolution of different urban growth scenarios and the preservation of a physical habitat the role of immaterial production in urban economic development the nature of tourism as a sustainable activity considered from both from the environmental and cultural angles the institutional aspect of governing a process of sustainable urban development readership a unique resource for environmental and urban managers policy analysts students of sustainable development and anyone else interested in the social and economic implications of preserving one of the most loved and celebrated cities in the world
