this book is centered on the venetian humanist pietro bembo 1470 1547 on his two year stay in sicily in 1492 4 to study the ancient greek language under one of its most distinguished contemporary teachers the byzantine émigré constantine lascaridis and above all on his ascent of mount etna in 1493 the more particular focus of this study is on the imaginative capacities that crucially shape bembo s elegantly crafted account in latin of his etna adventure in his so called de aetna published at the aldine press in venice in 1496 this work is cast in the form of a dialogue that takes place between the young bembo and his father bernardo himself a prominent venetian statesman with strong humanist involvements after pietro s return to venice from sicily in 1494 but de aetna offers much more than a one dimensional account of the facts sights and findings of pietro s climb far more important in the present study is his eye for creative elaboration or for transforming his literal experience on the mountain into a meditation on his coming of age at a remove from the conventional career path expected of one of his station within the venetian patriciate three mutually informing features that are critical to the artistic originality of de aetna receive detailed treatment in this study i the stimulus that pietro drew from the complex history of mount etna as treated in the greco roman literary tradition from pindar onwards ii the striking novelty of de aetna s status as the first latin text produced at the nascent aldine press in the prototype of what modern typography knows as bembo typeface and iii pietro s ingenious deployment of etna as a powerful multivalent symbol that simultaneously reflects the diverse characterizations of and the generational differences between father and son in the course of their dialogical exchanges within de aetna

a profound meditation on leopardi s art and thought as well as a reframing and reassertion of negri s own philosophical and political project of liberation antonio negri one of italy s most influential and controversial contemporary philosophers offers in this book a radical new interpretation of the nineteenth century italian poet giacomo leopardi for negri leopardi is not the bitter idealistic individualist of conventional literary history but rather a profoundly materialist thinker who sees human solidarity as the only possible solution to the catastrophes of history and politics negri traces leopardi s resistance to the transcendental idealism of kant and hegel with its emphasis on reason s power to resolve real antagonisms into abstract syntheses and his gradual development of a sophisticated poetic materialism focused on the constructive power of the imagination and its true illusions like nietzsche who admired him leopardi provides an alternative to modernity within modernity expressing a force of rupture and recomposition a uniquely italian one that is as relevant now as it was in the nineteenth century and which connects to the theory of empire as the political constitution of the present that negri has elaborated in collaboration with michael hardt antonio negri is the coauthor with michael hardt of empire multitude war and democracy in the age of empire and commonwealth timothy s murphy is houston truax wentz professor of english at oklahoma state university he has translated several of negri s works including trilogy of resistance books for burning between civil war and democracy in 1970s italy and subversive spinoza un contemporary variations this translation makes available for the first time to english speaking readers petrarch s earliest and perhaps most important collection of prose letters they were written for the most part between 1325 and 1366 and were organized into the present collection of twenty four books between 1345 and 1366 the collection represents a portrait of the artist as a young man seen through the eyes of the mature artist whether in the writing of poetry or being crowned poet laureate or in confessing his faults describing the dissolution of the kingdom of naples summoning up the grandeur of ancient rome or in writing to pope or emperor petrarch was always the consummate artist deeply concerned with creating a desired effect by means of a dignified gracefulness and always conscious that his private life and thoughts could be the object of high art and public interest as early as 1436 leonardo bruni wrote in his life of petrarch petrarch was the first man to have had a sufficiently fine mind to recognize the gracefulness of the lost ancient style and to bring it back to life it was indeed the very style or manner in which petrarch consciously sought to create the impression of continuity with the past that was responsible for the enormous impact he made on subsequent generations this complete translation by aldo s bernardo has long been out of print and is reproduced here in its entirety in three volumes vol 1 books i viii 472 pp introduction notes bibliography
