this book is a study of the phenomena of shadows meant in a broader sense as symbolic forms the shadow is a less real surface replica of some more real form from the platonic point of view empirical objects are shadows of ideas while from the modern natural point of view shadows are seen and conceived primarily as weaker replicas of bodies which give evidence of their material reality in the first three essays here several topics from the ancient egypt and greeks to modern india para

A Philosophy of the Real and the Possible

the philosophy of literature four studies puts forth the question of the extent to which philosophers must go to school with the poets it begins with a new interpretation of the famous platonic quarrel with the poetic wisdom of homer it brings this question forward through the humanism of thinkers of the italian renaissance and the german idealism of hegel it then treats the relation of philosophy and literature in four ways by considering philosophy as literature philosophy of literature philosophy in literature and philosophy and literature in regard to the first of these it discusses jorge luis borges s the immortal to the second james joyce s finnegan s wake to the third carl sandburg s epic prose poem the people yes and to the fourth sebastian brant s ship of fools this work demonstrates that in an area of thought often dominated by fashionable doctrines of literary interpretation the great works of literature and philosophy remain as permanent residents of our thought and imagination
