excerpt from songs in sol fa for the sunday school day school and singing school containing a brief course of instruction and a graded selection of songs in the tonic sol fa system hang up a modulator in plain view of the whole school let the teacher or leader at first only using the easier tunes sing a short phrase of the tune to the syllables pointing on the modulator as he sings pupils repeat the phrase the teacher pointing as they sing let this be done several times or until the phrase is somewhat familiar teach the next phrase in the same way then sing the two in connection and so on until the whole tune can be sung by the syllables the teacher still pointing on the modulator then turn to the book and sing the tune to the syllables if the pupils fail at any point return to the modulator and practice the difficult passage as before when the tune is learned call attention to the words their meaning the sentiment etc and then sing the tune to the words when the practice is conducted in this way it will not be long until the most difficult tunes can be easily taught not only that but after a time the tones will become so familiar that the modulator can be dispensed with and the tunes taught at once from the book by syllable observe that the teacher does not sing with the pupils they listen and look while he sings and points he points and listens while they sing one hour s training of this kind is more effective than five hours spent in singing with the teacher about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works excerpt from manual for teachers and rote songs to accompany the tonic sol fa music course for schools there is a growing demand for intelligent singing in our public schools although the study of vocal music has long been a recognized part of our public instruction the results taken as a whole have been very unsatisfactory the tonic sol fa method has been taught now for fifteen years in the public schools of great britain with such success that it is superseding all other systems of teaching vocal music it has recently been introduced into several of the public schools of america and in every instance has won the hearty approval of the teachers without any unnecessary complications it sets forth in a plain unmistakable way the fundamental principles of music the method is carefully arranged in progressive steps and is so entirely in accord with true educational principles that school teachers can and do teach it as successfully as they teach other branches of study about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works the present reader is a selection of texts on south african music which are chosen not only for their importance or the frequency of citations but with the express purpose of providing the reader with a deep understanding of the music itself consequently there are readings that are chosen because they have been influential but there are also many which though published have not enjoyed very wide circulation there are those which are of obvious historic interest and others which speak to contemporary issues among other things the volume provides an excellent sense of the varying
