awards non fiction book of the year the official debut book from youtube phenomenon lilly singh the ultimate no nonsense manual for millennials how how to make it to the top marie claire from actress comedian and youtube sensation lilly singh aka superwoman comes the definitive guide to being a bawse a person who exudes confidence reaches goals gets hurt efficiently and smiles genuinely because they ve fought through it all and made it out the other side told in her hilarious bold voice that s inspired over 9 million fans and using stories from her own life to illustrate her message lilly proves that there are no shortcuts to success warning this book does not include hopeful thoughts lucky charms and cute quotes that s because success happiness and everything else you want in life needs to be fought for not wished for in lilly s world there are no escalators only stairs a riveting resurrection of the city of poets the city of history saif mahmood s learned and evocative book takes us to the heart of delhi s romance with urdu verse and aesthetics namita gokhale urdu poetry rules the cultural and emotional landscape of india especially northern india and much of the deccan and of pakistan and it was in the great ancient city of delhi that urdu grew to become one of the world s most beautiful languages through the 18th and 19th centuries while the mughal empire was in decline delhi became the capital of a parallel kingdom the kingdom of urdu poetry producing some of the greatest most popular poets of all time they wrote about the pleasure and pain of love about the splendour of god and the villainy of preachers about the seductions of wine and about delhi their beloved home this treasure of a book documents the life and work of the finest classical urdu poets sauda dard mir ghalib momin zafar zauq and daagh through their biographies and poetry including their best known ghazals it also paints a compelling portrait of mughal delhi this is a book for anyone who has ever been touched by urdu or delhi by poetry or romance mirza asadullah khan 1797 1869 popularly ghalib is the most influential poet of the urdu language he is noted for the ghazals he wrote during his lifetime which have since been interpreted and sung by different people in myriad ways ghalib s popularity has today extended beyond the indian subcontinent to the hindustani diaspora around the world in this book gopi chand narang studies ghalib s poetics by tracing the archetypical roots of his creative consciousness and enigmatic thought in buddhist dialectical philosophy particularly in the concept of shunyata he underscores the importance of the mughal era s sabke hindi poetry especially through bedil whom ghalib considered his mentor the author also engages with ghalib criticism that has flourished since his death and analyses the important works of the poet including pieces from early nuskhahs and divan e ghalib strengthening this central argument much has been written about ghalib s life and his poetry a marked departure from this dominant trend narang s book looks at ghalib from different angles and places him in the galaxy of the great eastern poets stretching far beyond the boundaries of india and the urdu language from the 1 new york times bestselling author of milk and honey and the sun and her flowers comes her greatly anticipated third collection of poetry rupi kaur constantly embraces growth and in home body she walks readers through a reflective and intimate journey visiting the past the present and the potential of the self home
