long overlooked in standard reference works pioneering women medievalists finally receive their due in women medievalists and the academy this comprehensive edited volume brings to life a diverse collection of inspiring figures through memoirs biographical essays and interviews covering many different nationalities and academic disciplines including literature philology history archaeology art history theology or religious studies and philosophy each essay delves into one woman s life intellectual contributions and efforts to succeed in a male dominated field together these extraordinary personal histories constitute a new standard reference that speaks to a growing interest in women s roles in the development of scholarship and the academy the collection begins in the eighteenth century with elizabeth elstob and continues to the present and includes among more than seventy profiles such important figures as anna jameson lina eckenstein
