English grammar is a set of rules and guidelines that ensure the correct and standard use of the English language. It helps preserve the accuracy of the language by guiding its new learners as well as current users towards standard language use. Usage note: the suffix -wise has a long history of use to mean 'in the manner or direction of' as in clockwise, otherwise, and slantwise. Since the 1930s, however, the suffix has been widely used in the vaguer sense of 'with respect to' as in this has not been a good year saleswise. 4,816 learning grammar need not necessarily be a Herculean task if you do it the right way instead of learning all the rules of grammar by heart.
