excerpt from an outline of modern history a syllabus with map studies this syllabus represents a modest attempt to provide teachers and students with a guide to the study of modern history the book has been so arranged as to permit of considerable elasticity in its use it is intended to be suggestive rather than authoritative the topical outline is planned to be neither too abbreviated to provide a comprehensive basis for study nor so elaborate as to furnish the student with a substitute for careful note taking it is believed that the syllabus will offer to teachers a useful plan for collegiate courses in history without infringing upon the individual's ideas of the relative importance of different parts of the work therefore the topical outline has not been divided into lessons or assignments no list of books for review or of topics for essays has been appended no hard and fast rules have been laid down for the map studies to students particularly that rapidly growing number who study at home it is hoped that the syllabus will prove valuable as an aid in the evaluation and coordination of facts as well as in providing a general plan of study about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
