john milton is widely known as the poet of liberty and freedom but his commitment to justice has been often overlooked as alison a chapman shows milton s many prose works are saturated in legal ways of thinking and he also actively shifts between citing roman common and ecclesiastical law to best suit his purpose in any given text this book provides literary scholars with a working knowledge of the multiple jostling real world legal systems in conflict in seventeenth century england and brings to light milton s use of the various legal systems and vocabularies of the time natural versus positive law for example and the differences between them surveying milton s early pamphlets divorce tracts late political tracts and major prose works in comparison with the writings and cases of some of milton s contemporaries including george herbert john donne ben jonson and john bunyan chapman reveals the variety and nuance in milton s juridical toolkit and his subtle use of competing legal traditions in pursuit of justice john milton was born in bread street london on december 9th 1608 his early years were privately tutored before gaining a place at st paul s school and in 1625 he matriculated at christ s college cambridge earning a ba in 1629 and an ma in 1632 at cambridge he had developed a reputation for poetic skill but also experienced alienation from his peers and university life as a whole the next 6 years were spent in private study he read both ancient and modern works of theology philosophy history politics literature and science in preparation for a poetical career milton mastered latin greek hebrew french spanish and italian to these he would add old english whilst researching his history of britain and also acquired more than a passing acquaintance in dutch although he was studying some of his poetry from this time is remarkable l allegro and il penseroso in 1631 and lycidias in 1638 in may 1638 milton embarked upon a 15 month tour of france and italy these travels added a new and direct experience of artistic and religious traditions especially roman catholicism he cut the journey short to return home during the summer of 1639 because of what he claimed were sad tidings of civil war in england once home milton wrote prose tracts against episcopacy in the service of the puritan and parliamentary cause he married 16 year old mary powell in june 1643 but she left him after only a few months during which he wrote and published several writings on divorce mary did return after 3 years and their life thereafter seemed harmonious milton received a hostile response to the divorce tracts and drove him to write areopagitica his celebrated attack on pre printing censorship with the parliamentary victory in the civil war milton wrote the tenure of kings and magistrates 1649 which defended popular government and implicitly sanctioned the regicide which led to his appointment as secretary for foreign tongues by the council of state on 24 february 1652 milton published his latin defense of the english people defensio pro populo anglicano also known as the first defense milton s latin prose and intellectual sweep quickly gained him a european reputation tragically his first wife mary died on may 5th 1652 following the birth of their fourth child the following year milton had become totally blind probably due to glaucoma he then had to dictate his verse and prose to helpers one of whom was the poet andrew marvell he married again to katherine woodcock but she died in february 1658 less than four months after giving birth to a daughter who also tragically died though cromwell's death in 1658 caused the english republic to collapse milton stubbornly clung to his beliefs and in 1659 he published a treatise of civil power attacking the concept of a state dominated church upon the restoration in may 1660 milton went into hiding for his life an arrest warrant was issued and his writings burnt he re-emerged after a general pardon was issued but was nevertheless arrested and briefly imprisoned before influential friends such as marvell now an mp intervened his third marriage was to elizabeth mynshull despite a 31 year age gap the marriage seemed happy and milton spent the remaining decade of his life living quietly in london apart from a short spell in chalfont st giles during the great plague of london milton was to now publish his greatest works which had been gestating for many years paradise lost perhaps the classic english epic poem was originally published in 10 books in 1667 this was followed by paradise regained and samson agonistes in 1671 because of his anti-monarchy views their reception was muted but over the centuries since milton has established himself as second only to shakespeare he died of kidney failure on november 8th 1674 and was buried in the church of st giles crripplegate
