ancient religions are definitely complex systems of gods which resist our understanding divine names provide fundamental keys to gain access to the multiples ways gods were conceived characterized and organized among the names given to the gods many of them refer to spaces cities landscapes sanctuaries houses cosmic elements they reflect mental maps which need to be explored in order to gain new knowledge on both the structure of the pantheons and the human agency in the cultic dimension by considering the intersection between naming and mapping this book opens up new perspectives on how tradition and innovation appropriation and creation play a role in the making of polytheistic and monotheistic religions far from being confined to sanctuaries in fact gods dwell in human environments in multiple ways they move into imaginary spaces and explore the cosmos by proposing a new and interdisciplinary angle of approach which involves texts images spatial and archaeological data this book sheds light on ritual practices and representations of gods in the whole mediterranean from italy to mesopotamia from greece to north africa and egypt names and spaces enable to better define differentiate and connect gods
