excerpt from master clues in world history a book at once so ambitious in its title and so unpretentious in its bulk may make an unusually strong call for a preface a word of explanation may therefore be given as to how the volume was written and is now being published the author has always been specially interested in history and in the end of the day has read in the best sources open to him the story of every country that has left an express record he has also followed up the literature devoted to historical reconstruction upon the material remains of the ancient civilisations where no direct story has survived he has however to confess that he was often overwhelmed with the mere details in the very unequal narratives that go by the name of history many and many a time being quite unable to see the wood for the trees about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
