the complete guide to capital markets for quantitative professionals is a comprehensive resource for readers with a background in science and technology who want to transfer their skills to the financial industry it is written in a clear conversational style and requires no prior knowledge of either finance or financial analytics the book begins by discussing the operation of the financial industry and the business models of different types of wall street firms as well as the job roles those with technical backgrounds can fill in those firms then it describes the mechanics of how these firms make money trading the main financial markets focusing on fixed income but also covering equity options and derivatives markets and highlights the ways in which quantitative professionals can participate in this money making process the second half focuses on the main areas of wall street technology and explains how financial models and systems are created implemented and used in real life this is one of the few books that offers a review of relevant literature and internet resources fundamentally coaching is about enabling someone to feel heard and to access new insights into their own life but how can you facilitate someone else s thinking when you don t know what they already know it is almost impossible to remember models and questions whilst giving your companion your full attention at the same time coaching simply means that you can listen and notice more getting quickly to the heart of the conversation whether you are brand new to coaching are a trained coach who has lost confidence or have many years experience coaching at a senior level this deeply practical book will teach you how to do less so that your companion can do more understand why saying what you see is more useful than listening to any particular story put boundaries around a conversation making it more effective for your companion and easier for you tailor how you speak to you speak to allow a collaborative environment and any conversation in partnership tailored to help the practising
