final revelation on this comes in a startling climax presents the myths of the ancient egyptians and a glimpse of the civilization that created them the position of ancient egypt was unique not in one but in every sense to begin at the very foundation of life in that country we find that the soil was unlike any other on earth in its origin every acre of fruitful land between the first cataract and the sea had been brought from inner africa and each year additions were made to it out of this mud borne down thousands of miles from the great fertile uplands of abyssinia by rivers grew everything needed to feed and clothe man and nourish animals out of it also was made the brick from which walls houses and buildings of various uses and kinds were constructed though this soil of the country was rich it could be utilized only by the unceasing co ordinate efforts of a whole population constrained and directed to direct and constrain was the task of the priests and the pharaohs samuel manning's classic work is indispensable for anyone interested in the history of egyptology arranged in the form of a journey proceeding through alexandria cairo assouan and abu simbel the book contains a wealth this is a new release of the original 1923 edition it became obvious to the people of homestar that their planet was doomed the twin suns were on a collision course and the planet was burning up the rivers were polluted and life would soon be extinct a mass exodus was their only chance of survival helped by god like beings named abif they built gigantic space ships capable of transporting them and their animals to a new planet twelve ships carried them on a long journey through the realms of space to the milky way galaxy where it was said they would find a land of milk and honey suitable for them to colonize we meet the pharaoh family and travel with them seeing how the young ones live aboard the ships and follow their adventures all seems tranquil on the flagship egypt but there is a problem as you are about to discover underlying this peaceful existence is an undercurrent of jealousy and hatred there is a blossoming of forbidden love between eve a royal princess and adam a dark one eve's brother ra is furious as he is expected to marry eve and thus carry on the pure pharaoh bloodline at last the ships pass
