Comparative Perspectives on Gender Equality in Japan and Norway 2021-11-28

this book compares perspectives on gender equality in norway and japan focusing on family education media and sexuality and reproduction as seen through a gendered lens what can we learn from a comparison between two countries that stand in significant contrast to each other with respect to gender equality norway and japan differ in terms of historical cultural and socioeconomic backgrounds most importantly japan lags far behind norway when it comes to the world economic forum s gender gap report rather than taking a narrow approach that takes as its starting point the assumption that norway has so much more to offer in terms of gender equality the authors attempt to show that a comparative perspective of two countries in the west and east can be mutually beneficial to both contexts in the advancement of gender equality the interdisciplinary team of researchers contributing to this book cover a range of contemporary topics in gender equality including fatherhood and masculinity teaching and learning in gender studies education cultural depictions of gender trans experiences and feminism this unique collection is suitable for researchers and students this collection expands the body of research on the intersection of gender and translation to highlight perspectives across different countries in europe showcasing developments in the field from its origins in the emergence of feminist translation in quebec over the last thirty years building off seminal work on feminist translation by scholars in canada in the 1980s and 1990s the book explores the evolution of the discipline in shifting translation practices and research across a range of european countries with a focus on underrepresented areas such as malta serbia and poland the different chapters examine key developments such as the critical reframing of gender and identity the viewing of historical translation activity by women through the lens of ideological and political motivations and the analysis of socio political contexts where feminist or gender inspired translation has impacted translators practices the volume looks concurrently at the european context and beyond
