so it s kind of like a parlor game then the question is apparently of ancient eastern extraction it seems to be a gut thing the answer just feels right and then you come up with reasons given a relatively level playing field i e water deep enough so that a shark could maneuver proficiently but shallow enough so that a bear could stand and operate with its characteristic dexterity who would win in a fight between a bear and a shark in this brilliant satire of our media saturated culture the sovereign nation of las vegas the entertainment capital of the world is host to bear v shark ii after a disappointing loss in the first matchup between the land and the sea the bear is back with a vengeance and out for blood all of america is obsessed with the upcoming spectacle so tickets are hard to come by with an essay entitled bear v shark a reason to live young curtis norman wins a national writing contest and four tickets to the event the normans load up their suv and embark on a road trip to vegas as they head cross country the family is besieged by a dizzying barrage of voices television and radio personalities public service announcements bear and shark pundits freudians theologians and self published authors in addition to the bear v shark fanatics cultists and resisters they meet at roadside gas stations and restaurants overwhelmed by factoids statistics and ten second debates the normans along with the rest of country can t seem to get their facts straight much less figure out a way to actually communicate with one another sound bites and verbal tics predominate misheard misunderstood and just plain mistaken information is absorbed mangled and regurgitated to hilarious effect and the most inane subjects from the disappearance of dutch culture to the shakespearean bias toward the bear are vigorously and obsessively debated these meaningless exchanges of misinformation leave mr norman disenchanted world weary and ambivalent about the impending show but the family eventually makes it to vegas for an apocalyptic and surprisingly emotional ending written in quick commercial like segments that mirror the media it satirizes chris bachelder s debut is a fiercely funny razor sharp novel about the odd intersection of zealotry and trivia about the barriers to human connection in a society that values entertainment above all else through a clever act of novelistic subterfuge bachelder makes us laugh at our penchant for absurd and useless information while drawing us into a dazzling spectacle of his own imagination
