~~andrew lang takes the reader into the romantic world of the gallant knights of~~ the round table it tells of their brave and chivalrous deeds fair maidens the quest for the holy grail and the tragic love of king arthur for guinevere the most potent of the mist enshrouded tales of adventure passed down from pre recorded history the arthurian legends have as much appeal today as they did in the days of the troubadors tales from the arabian nights also edited by andrew lang tells of the beautiful scheherazade her husband has threatened to kill her so each night she diverts him with tales of fantastic adventure leaving each story unfinished so that he spares her life to hear the ending on the morrow illustrated by h j ford the tales include aladdin the enchanted horse sinbad the sailor and the great caliph of bagdad haroun al raschid tales of troy and greece allow andrew lang to draw on his classical knowledge to retell the homer legend of the wars between the greeks and the trojans paris the lovely helen of troy achilles hector ulysses the amazons and the famous wooden horse all feature in this magical introduction to one of the greatest legends ever

from homer and shakespeare to toni morrison and jonathan safran foer major works of literature have a great deal to teach us about two of life s most significant stages growing up and growing old distinguished scholar arnold weinstein s provocative and engaging new book morning noon and night explores classic writing s insights into coming of age and surrendering to time and considers the impact of these revelations upon our lives with wisdom humor and moving personal observations weinstein leads us to look deep inside ourselves and these great books to see how we can use art as both mirror and guide he offers incisive readings of seminal novels about childhood huck finn s empathy for the runaway slave jim illuminates a child s moral education catherine and heathcliff s struggle with obsessive passion in wuthering heights is hauntingly familiar to many young lovers dickens s pip in great expectations must grapple with a world that wishes him harm and in marjane satrapi s autobiographical persepolis little marjane faces a different kind of struggle growing into adolescence as her country moves through the pain of the iranian revolution in turn great writers also ponder the lessons learned in life s twilight years both king lear and willy loman suffer as their patriarchal authority collapses and death creeps up brecht s mother courage displays the inspiring indomitability of an aging woman who has borne every possible blow but is still standing still moving and older love can sometimes be funny rip van winkle conveniently sleeps right through his marriage and sometimes tragic as j m coetzee s david lurie learns the hard way in disgrace tapping into the hearts and minds of memorable characters from sophocles oedipus to artie in art spiegelman s maus morning noon and night makes an eloquent and powerful case for the role of great literature as a knowing window into our lives and times its intelligence passion and genuine appreciation for the written word remind us just how crucial books are to the business of being human flat country but in those times shields were very large and rose at the middle into two peaks with a hollow between them so that ithaca seen far off in the sea with her two chief mountain peaks and a cloven valley between them looked exactly like a shield the country was so rough that men kept no horses for at that time people drove standing up in little light chariots with two horses they never rode and there was no cavalry in battle men fought from chariots when ulysses the son of laertes king of ithaca grew up he never fought from a chariot for he had none but always on foot if there were no horses in ithaca there was plenty of cattle the father of ulysses had flocks of sheep and herds of swine and wild goats deer and hares lived in the hills and in the plains the sea was full of fish of many sorts which men caught with nets and with rod and line and hook thus ithaca was a good island to live in the summer was long and there was hardly any winter only a few cold weeks and then the swallows came back and the plains were like a garden all covered with wild flowersÑviolets lilies narcissus and roses with the blue sky and the blue sea the island was beautiful white temples stood on the shores and the nymphs a sort of fairies had their little shrines built of stone with wild rose bushes hanging over them other islands lay within sight crowned with mountains stretching away one behind the other into the sunset ulysses in the course of his life saw many rich countries and great cities of men but wherever he was his heart was always in the little isle of ithaca where he had learned how to row and how to sail a boat and how to shoot with bow and arrow and to hunt boars and stags and manage his hounds a window onto the lives of the romantic poets through the re creation of one legendary night in 1817 the author of the highly acclaimed posthumous keats praised as full of those fleeting moments we call genius washington post now provides a window into the lives of keats and his contemporaries in this brilliant new work on december 28 1817 the painter benjamin robert haydon hosted what he referred to in his diaries and autobiography as the immortal dinner he wanted to introduce his young friend john keats to the great william wordsworth and to celebrate with his friends his most important historical painting thus far christ s entry into jerusalem in which keats wordsworth and charles lamb also a guest at the party appeared after thoughtful and entertaining discussions of poetry and art and their relation to enlightenment science the party evolved into a lively raucous evening this legendary event would prove to be a highlight in the lives of these immortals a beautiful and profound work of extraordinary brilliance the immortal evening regards the dinner as a lens through which to understand the lives and work of these legendary artists and to contemplate the immortality of genius winner of the truman capote award for literary criticism
