william mac lellan ha subito un grave torto che ha mutato il corso della sua vita il marchese d halifax l arrogante e cinico fratellastro gli ha sottratto la donna amata mary di wentwort egli che ha sangue francese nelle vene ha rinnegato la sua patria adottiva il regno di gran bretagna per vendicarsi ponendo la sua spada e la sua nave la tuonante a servizio della causa americana il giovane baronetto sa infatti che la sua amata si trova proprio a boston tenuta dagli inglesi e cinta d assedio dagli insorti americani egli lascia la sua corvetta nel porto come appoggio alle navi americane e con una lancia tenta di raggiungere il forto per liberare la fanciulla lo accompagnano nell audace impresa due singoli personaggi il mastro d equipaggio testa di pietra un bretone tutto d un pezzo e rotto a tutte le astuzie e il giovane gabbiera piccolo flocco nonostante l infuriare dell'assedio William Mac Leellan sa che il momento è propizio per passare inosservato: gli inglesi sono impegnati a respingere il nemico e a mantenere il controllo della popolazione che minaccia di sollevarsi trovandosi con poco cibo e scarsa acqua. Ma come sempre avviene nei romanzi di Emilio Salgari, ogni progetto ha i suoi imprevisti. L'impresa contrastata da circostanze altramente drammatiche rispinge l'avventura salgariana in alto mare in una guerra corsara contro navi inglesi che tentano di forzare il blocco mentre gli insorti americani riescono vittoriosi. Il presidio inglese di Boston è infatti costretto ad arrendersi. Meno felice è l'epilogo della vicenda privata di William Mac Leellan: il marchese di Halifax sembra vincere e con la sua prigioniera scompare all'orizzonte con una veloce fregata. Ma la battaglia finale è solo rimandata al secondo libro del ciclo: la crociera della Tuonante.

the refreshed insights into early imperial roman historiography this book offers are linked to a recent discovery in the spring of 2014 the binders of the archive of robert marichal were dusted off by the erc funded project platinum erc stg 2014 n 636983 in response to tiziano dorandi s recollections of a series of unpublished notes on latin texts on papyrus among these was an in progress edition of the latin rolls from herculaneum together with marichal s intuition that one of them had to be ascribed to a certain annaeus seneca platinum followed the unpublished intuition by robert marichal as one path of investigation in its own research and work working on the latin p herc 1067 led to confirm marichal s intuitions and to go beyond it p herc 1067 is the only extant direct witness to seneca the elder s historiae bringing a new and important chapter of latin literature arise out of a charred papyrus is significant the present volume is made up of two complementary sections each of which contains seven contributions they are in close dialogue with each other as looking at the same literary matter from several points of view yields undeniable advantages and represents an innovative and fruitful step in latin literary criticism these two sections express the two different but interlinked axes along which the contributions were developed on one side the focus is on the starting point of the debate namely the discovery of the papyrus roll transmitting the historiae of seneca the elder and how such a discovery can be integrated with prior knowledge about this historiographical work on the other side there is a broader view on early imperial roman historiography to which the new perspectives opened by the rediscovery of seneca the elder s historiae greatly contribute recent decades have seen a major expansion in our understanding of how early greek lyric functioned in its social political and ritual contexts and the fundamental role song played in the day to day lives of communities groups and individuals has been the object of intense study this volume places its focus elsewhere and attempts to illuminate poetic effects that cannot be captured in functional terms alone employing a range of interpretative methods it explores the idea of lyric performances as textual events some chapters investigate the pragmatic relationship between real performance contexts and imaginative settings while others consider how lyric poems position themselves in relation to earlier texts and textual traditions or discuss the distinctive encounters lyric poems create between listeners authors and performers individual lyric texts and authors such as sappho alcaeus and pindar are analysed in detail alongside treatments of the relationship between lyric and the homeric hymns building on the renewed concern with the aesthetic in the study of greek lyric and beyond textual events aims to re examine the relationship between the poems formal features and their historical contexts lyric poems are a type of socio political discourse but they are also objects of attention in themselves they enable reflection on social and ritual practices as much as they are embedded within in them but as well as expressing cultural norms lyric challenges listeners to think about and experience the world afresh
