picture book from richard jackson illustrated by caldecott medalist and laura ingalls wilder award winner jerry pinkney an award winning journalist investigates a story largely ignored by mainstream media but right there in front of our eyes ufos uaps flying cigars extraordinary new technologies are we not alone award winning investigative journalist ross coulthart has been intrigued by ufos since mysterious glowing lights were reported near new zealand s kaikoura mountains when he was a teenager the 1978 sighting is just one of thousands since the 1940s and yet research into ufos is still seen as the realm of crackpots and conspiracy theorists in 2020 however after decades of denial the us department of defence made the astonishing admission that strange aerial and underwater objects frequently reported and videoed by pilots and tracked by sensors are real unexplained and pose a genuine national security concern compelled to investigate coulthart has embarked on what s become the most confronting and challenging story of his career speaking to witnesses researchers scientists spies and defence and intelligence officials and insiders what he has found suggests that the world is on the cusp of extraordinary technological breakthroughs and cultural revelations bizarre sometimes mind blowing and utterly fascinating in plain sight tells a story that s largely escaped the radar of mainstream media coverage but has been there all along now it s time to observe what s in front of our eyes hiding in plain sight tells the story of the global effort to apprehend the world s most wanted fugitives beginning with the flight of an estimated thirty thousand nazi war criminals after the second world war then moving on to the question of justice following the recent balkan wars and the rwandan genocide and ending with the establishment of the international criminal court and america s pursuit of suspected terrorists in the aftermath of 9 11 the book explores the range of diplomatic and military strategies both successful and unsuccessful that states and international courts have adopted to pursue and capture war crimes suspects it is a story fraught with broken promises backroom politics ethical dilemmas and daring escapades all in the name of international justice and human rights in this exhaustively researched and compelling written work of political and judicial history the authors argue that while the legal and operational regimes needed to apprehend and deliver suspected war criminals to justice are largely in place the political will on the part of states to make arrests happen in a consistent and apolitical manner remains elusive and until this situation is rectified murderers will get away with murder and torturers will retire these bubble and boil underneath the surface of our everyday life and though we ignore them we know they point us to realms of wisdom or even mystery to something more author mark buchanan asked these same questions i want more god he prayed and the answer was more than he was looking for it was right there hidden in plain sight among the syllables and syntax of a few words of advice from the apostle peter with time and experience buchanan learned to tease it out this secret of more and he wrote a book about it hidden in plain sight the answer he discovered is an investigation of the cross the answer is an excavation of the virtues the answer urges us passionately to make every effort and buchanan tells us the answer is worth it musaicum books presents to you this carefully created
