Language Policy and Political Economy 2015-02-02 this volume articulates a new framework for language policy research that explores the connections between language policy and political economy the chapters are united in their focus on english a language that has enjoyed a reputation as a global language over the course of the last century and that is perceived as a tool for socioeconomic mobility the book argues that adopting a new political economic approach to language policy research will enhance our ability to provide more consistent explanations about the status functions benefits and limitations of english in its various roles in non english dominant countries the book poses the questions does english serve as a lingua franca and does it advance the interests of sustainable economic and social development in low income countries written by leading experts in language policy research the chapters reveal the myriad and complex ways in which government leaders policymakers and communities make decisions about the languages that will be taught as subjects or used as media of instruction in schools english is often advertised as a social good with unquestioned instrumental value yet access to quality english medium education in low income countries tends to be restricted to those with sufficient economic means to pay for it as the capitalist world economy continues to change and grow and assuming that translation technologies continue to improve it is likely that the roles and relative importance of english as a global language will change significantly assessing the costs and benefits of acquiring english therefore takes on increased urgency the book argues that a political economic approach is particularly appropriate in this endeavor as it takes into account theories and empirical findings from a range of disciplines in order to assess and explain real world phenomena that do not fit neatly into boxes labeled economic social political or cultural together the chapters in this volume argue for a new direction in language policy studies grounded in political economy that will explain why english has been experienced as both a blessing and curse in different parts of the world why english continues to be useful as a lingua franca for particular sectors of the global economy and why it is a detriment to economic development in many low income countries the book will be invaluable to language policy scholars policy makers and educators significantly advancing research in this important field

Infectious Diseases of South Africa 2023-06-22 the 2013 2014 education for all global monitoring report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics teaching and learning achieving quality for all describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers the report also documents global progress in achieving education for all goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 in addition the report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education

The Routledge Handbook of Literacy Studies 2015-05-15 labour beyond cosatu is the fourth volume in the series taking democracy seriously a ground breaking textured and nuanced study on workers and democracy which was established in the 1990s the series looks at members of trade unions affiliated to the congress of south african trade unions cosatu and provides a rich database of trade union members and research conducted over the past twenty years it is one of the very few such resources available to researchers anywhere in the world labour beyond cosatu paints a complex picture the 12 chapters of the volume explore various rebellions and conflicts in the trade union sector starting with the national union of mineworkers num and rivalries between cosatu affiliates unpacking the conflicts between state sector and private sector workers contributors look at the impact of generational and educational shifts seen by some commentators as proof that cosatu is now middle class the book also raises the issue of gender in the unions by usefully locating the controversy around charges levelled at zwelinzima vavi in 2013 in the larger context of serious problems in the gender politics within parts of cosatu refuting the image of a union federation solidly committed to the anc labour beyond cosatu presents evidence of a sharp decline in support for the anc within cosatu and growing scepticism towards the alliance it shows that attempts to understand the labour movement in south africa in the future will need to include research of smaller independent unions and social movements the volume s contributors make a major contribution to key debates on labour and democracy providing new material that can potentially shift the discussion in important ways this book will be of great value to students and researchers in industrial sociology political studies industrial psychology and economics and management

Minerals Yearbook 2019-01-31 in present day south africa urban development agendas have inscribed doctrines of desirable and undesirable life in city spaces and the public that uses the space this book studies the ways in which segregated city spaces displacement of people from their homes and criminalization practices are structured and executed sara dehkordi shows that these doctrines are being legitimized and legalized as part of a discursive practice and that the criminalization of lower class members are part of that practice not as random policing techniques of individual security forces but as a technology of power that attends to the body zooms in on it screens it and interrogates it

Minerals Yearbook 2019-01-31 despite increasing reports across the globe on renewable development and maintenance little is known regarding what strategies are required for improved economic growth and prosperity in africa improving an understanding of the methods for promoting growth through reusable resource development and administration is a vital topic of research to consider in assisting the continent s development the handbook of research on sustainable development and governance strategies for economic growth in africa provides emerging research on the strategies required to promote growth in africa as well as the implications and issues of the expansion of prosperity while highlighting sustainable education pastoral development pathways and the public sector role readers will learn about the history of sustainable development and governmental approaches to improving africa s economy this publication is a vital resource for policy makers research institutions academics researchers and advanced level students seeking current distinctive feature of urbanization in the last 50 years is the expansion of urban populations and built development well beyond what was earlier conceived as the city limit resulting in metropolitan areas this is challenging the relevance of traditional municipal boundaries and by extension traditional governing structures and institutions steering the metropolis metropolitan governance for sustainable urban development encompasses the reflections of thought and practice leaders on the underlying premises for governing metropolitan space sectoral adaptations of those premises and dynamic applications in a wide variety of contexts those reflections are structured into three sections section 1 discusses the conceptual underpinnings of metropolitan governance analyzing why political technical and administrative arrangements at this level of government are needed section 2 deepens the discussion by addressing specific sectoral themes of mobility land use planning environmental management and economic production as well as crosscutting topics of metropolitan governance finance and monitoring and evaluation section 3 tests the concepts and their sectoral adaptations against the practice with cases from africa america asia and europe

Labour Beyond Cosatu 2017-07-01 south africa has signed the sustainable development goals sdgs and placed poverty and inequality reduction at the forefront of its national development plan this study links a nonparametric income distribution micro simulation model and an economywide general equilibrium macro model to define the milestones south africa must meet to halve poverty and end hunger by 2030 as targeted by the sdgs the current economic growth of 2.0 percent on average annually must be accelerated to 4.5 percent between 2015 and 2030 to achieve the sdgs on poverty and hunger although an income growth strategy is important to reduce hunger an income redistribution strategy of expanding social assistance to cover 10 percent of the population that is nearly 7 million persons appears to be a key to ending hunger by 2030 rural areas should be targeted for intervention to reduce income inequality skilled and high skilled labor markets offer better employment and earning opportunities in these geographic areas than do the markets for other skill levels thus skill development programs in these areas are likely to contribute to meeting the sdgs on poverty and hunger by 2030

Annual Performance Plan 2016 the education triple cocktail brings together rigorous quantitative and qualitative research on a new approach to improving foundational teaching and learning for schoolchildren living in working class poor and remote rural communities in resource constrained systems like south africa at the core of this book is the theory and evidence for a powerful new interlocking and mutually reinforcing change model inspired by the aids treatment story the three pronged approach of structured daily lesson plans appropriate and high quality educational materials and one on one instructional coaching to help teachers transform their instructional practices in early grade classrooms shows that it will improve learning outcomes for education systems defined by low levels of early grade learning and profoundly unequal outcomes the education triple cocktail offers a theoretically informed evidence based way forward this book will be of immense use to teachers students of education policymakers and parents

Segregation, Inequality, and Urban Development 2020-07-31 twenty years of education transformation in gauteng 1994 to 2014 an independent review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 these essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area the book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader it sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially there has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the gauteng department of education's present and past we leave the reader to decide to what extent the gde has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years

Handbook of Research on Sustainable Development and Governance Strategies for Economic Growth in Africa

2018-02-09 over the past 20 years social scientists government officials and investors have expressed mounting interest in the brics countries which include brazil russia india china and south africa these countries are widely viewed as both key actors in the global economy and important regional powers the political economy of the brics countries is a three volume set that aims to address various crucial issues regarding these countries volume 1 analyzes whether economic growth in the brics countries has been broad based and promoted equitable economic and social outcomes the authors examine specific dimensions of growth in these five economies that constrain their ability to act effectively and cohesively in international affairs volume 2 considers how the brics have affected global economic governance and the international political economy volume 3 provides various approaches to economic informality in the brics moreover the chapters deal with several connections between informality and important political economic and institutional phenomena such as economic globalization and international aid economic development political regimes social capital political networks and political participation labor market rules and social policy preferences the brics countries have attracted rising attention over the past two decades the volumes provide an in depth analysis of various key issues regarding these countries and chart a course for future research

Steering the Metropolis 2017-10-24 the sustainable development goals signed in 2016 marked a new phase in global development thinking one which is focused on ecologically and fiscally sustainable human settlements few countries offer a better testing ground for their attainment than post apartheid south africa since the coming to power of the african national congress the country has undergone a policy making revolution driven by an urgent need to improve access to services for the country's black majority a quarter century on from the fall of apartheid building a capable state asks what lessons can be learned from the south african experience the book assesses whether the south african government has succeeded in improving service delivery focusing on the vital sectors of water and sanitation energy roads public transport and housing emphasizing the often overlooked role of local government institutions and finance the book demonstrates that effective service delivery can have a profound impact on the social structure of emerging economies and must form an integral part of any future development strategy a comprehensive examination of urban service delivery in the global south building a capable state is essential reading for students and practitioners across the social sciences public finance and engineering sectors

The Education Triple Cocktail 2015-05-05 freedom in the world the freedom house flagship survey whose findings have been published annually since 1972 is the standard setting comparative assessment of global political rights and civil liberties the survey ratings and narrative reports on 195 countries and fourteen territories are used by policymakers the media international corporations civic activists and human rights defenders to monitor trends in democracy and track improvements and setbacks in freedom worldwide the freedom in the world political rights and civil liberties ratings are determined through a multi layered process of research and evaluation by a team of regional analysts and eminent scholars the analysts used a broad range of sources of information including foreign and domestic news reports academic studies nongovernmental organizations think tanks individual professional contacts and visits to the region in conducting their research the methodology of the survey is derived in large measure from the universal declaration of human rights and these standards are applied to all countries and territories irrespective of geographical location ethnic or religious composition or level of economic development

Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 2020-03-03 the histories of south africa and ireland have been tumultuous and traumatic both countries have experienced political repression sectarian violence and oppression that still impact the spiritual well being of people today their parallel histories are of colonialism displacement and division and a fight for land and sovereignty both countries have embarked on a process of healing and reconciliation yet there is an ongoing struggle for reparation and or reversal of previous injustices recognising that museums of the 21st century have the potential to contribute to catharsis and mutual understanding this book reflects on selected museums in south africa and ireland that commemorate the pain of the past and the hope for the future the primary focus of the book is the way in which museum guides curators and managers share their stories and the stories of their ancestors and the stories of other people s ancestors who were caught up in the conflict while interweaving the stories of the authors as well print edition not for sale in sub saharan africa

Political Economy Of The Brics Countries, The (In 3 Volumes) 2017-11-15 across the world higher education is witnessing exponential growth in both student participation and types of educational providers one key phenomenon of this growth is an increase in student diversity governments are widening access to higher education for students from traditionally underrepresented groups however this raises questions about whether this rapid growth may in face compromise academic quality this book presents case studies of how higher education institutions in diverse countries are maintaining academic excellence while increasing the access and participation of students from historically underrepresented backgrounds including case studies spanning four continents the authors and editors examine whether increasing widening participation positively impacts upon academic quality this volume will be of interest and value to students and scholars of global higher education representation and participation in education and quality in higher education

Building a Capable State 2020-04-30 this book brings together authors from united states south africa united kingdom china canada and australia to provide insights and case studies from across a range of contexts to explore the interplay between the notions of rurality innovation and education the book reveals a hopeful and resilient approach to innovative rural education and scholarship collectively and provides important evidence to speak against an often deficit view of rural education three patterns are revealed namely the importance of place attentive strategies the importance of joined up alliances to maximise resources and networks and finally the need to utilize alternative methodologies and frameworks that have a starting point of difference rather than deficit for any rural initiative or approach by drawing from international examples and responding in innovative ways to rural education challenges this book provides an opportunity to share international insights into innovations interventions and partnerships that promote and support rural education in its broadest sense From Parchment to Practice 2015-12-24 research for educational change presents ways in which educational research can fulfil its commitments to educational practice focussing its discussion within the context of mathematics education it argues that while research generated insights can have beneficial effects on learning and teaching the question of how these effects are to be generated and sustained is far from evident the question of how to turn research into educational improvement is discussed here in the context of learning and teaching hindered by poverty and social injustice in the first part of the book four teams of researchers use different methodologies while analysing the same corpus of data collected in a south african mathematics classroom in the second part each of these teams makes a specific proposal about what can be done and how so that its research generated insights have a tangible beneficial impact on what is happening in mathematical classrooms combining two discourses that of researchers speaking to one another and that of researchers communicating their insights to those responsible for educational practice the book deals with the perennial question of communication between those who study educational processes and those who are directly responsible for teacher education educational research and classroom practices this book will be key reading for postgraduates researchers and academics in education and particularly in the areas of mathematics education education research teacher education and classroom practice it will also appeal to teacher educators practitioners and undergraduate students interested in educational research

Freedom in the World 2015 2024-06-07 the other report is published by the u s state department and is more committed but only as far as the national interest of the world s only superpower is concerned therefore the state department report must be read while keeping in mind the state of u s relations with the countries concerned this report is accompanied by the so called certification process whose arbitrary character has often been stressed for instance iran a country whose determination to fight the drug transit on its territory is well known more than 100 iranian law enforcement agents die every year as a result was removed from the blacklist of decertified countries in the spring of 1999 precisely as it was inaugurating a policy of opening itself to external influence including that of the united states in retrospect this demonstrates that the u s government had decertified iran in past years because it was viewed as an islamic and terrorist country not because of its supposed involvement in drug trafficking neither does the last state department report explain why haji ayub afridi a major pakistani drug baron who had voluntarily surrendered to u s authorities returned to pakistan in 1999 after spending a mere three and a half years in a u s prison

Telling Stories of Pain and Hope 2018-07-05 since the advent of democracy in 1994 south africa has been engaged in an unprecedented exercise of national soul searching torn between the need to lay to rest centuries of racial conflict and the desire to come to terms with its traumatic history this book asks whether the country has begun to turn the corner on the legacy of collective hurt to do so it ranges in scope across 350 years of south african history encompassing the struggle against the apartheid regime the downfall of white supremacy the truth and reconciliation commission and the first 25 years of democracy up to more recent movements such as rhodesmustfall or the inquests into the 2012 marikana massacre that point to the persistence of traumatic memory in contemporary society the authors assembled here set out to analyse the representation of such memory how it has been woven into narratives recorded preserved and questioned and how issues of individual and collective responsibility have been grafted onto it through the visual arts literature political discourse and public action in focusing on memory along with its derived forms of memorialization collective memory nostalgia or post memory our contributors pose a fundamental question is south africa finally coming to the end of the post apartheid transition period do the decades of memory work on racial violence and repression examined here hold out hope for the nation to make peace with its past

Achieving Equity and Quality in Higher Education 2021-03-22 sinn und zweck der geschichte werden immer wieder neu hinterfragt weil sich gesellschaften ständig neu verorten davon ist der geschichtsunterricht direkt betroffen warum geschichtsunterricht autor innen aus 18 ländern und vier kontinenten fragen daher nach der bedeutung des geschichtsunterrichts aus unterschiedlichen perspektiven mit theoretischen Überlegungen und modellen mit bezügen aus der unterrichtspraxis und erkenntnissen aus der forschung die publikation präsentiert eine ganze reihe von gründen warum geschichte heute unbedingt unterrichtet werden muss sie liest sich als plädoyer für einen kompetenten umgang mit geschichte in heutigen gesellschaften

Rural Education Across the World 2016-06-17 this book examines the quality assessment movement in academic scholarship as globalization prompts a search for global measures of university services and output it gauges productivity in terms of universal publication metrics and considers ranking and research productivity from a comparative perspective the book considers the use of the impact factor as a gauge of publication value noting that this less important in countries lacking central government appropriations to universities and to research it argues that pressure to publish in certain journals and to research topics of interest to english language readers has been felt differentially in english language systems compared to others but also that performance pressures fall more on younger more junior contract staff than on senior and tenured professors it problematizes international comparisons of quality and analyses the benefits of a zone of ideas and metrics in a common language promoting international mobility efficiency collaboration but also the costs which are rarely borne equally across countries languages and cultures the book provides a strong evidence based contribution to major debates in contemporary higher education reforms and the measurement of academic output
