Put a Sock in It, Percy! 1994

on an evening before easter day i sat at a table and having as simfiliul my custom was in my humble prayer sufficiently conversed with my creator and considered many great mysteries whereof the father of lights his majesty had shown me not a few and being now ready to prepare in my heart together with my dear paschal lamb a small unleavened undefiled cake all of a sudden arose so horrible a tempest that i imagined no other but that through its mighty force the hill on which my little house was founded would fly into pieces but inasmuch as this and the like from the devil who had done me many a spite was no new thing to me i took courage and persisted in my meditation till somebody in an unusual manner touched me on the back whereupon i was so hugely terrified that i dared hardly look about me yet i showed myself as cheerful as in such occurrences human frailty would permit now the same thing still twitching me several times by the coat i looked back and behold it was a fair and glorious lady whose garments were all sky coloured and curiously like heaven bespangled with golden stars in her right hand she bore a trumpet of beaten gold on which a name was engraved which i could well read but am as yet forbidden to reveal it in her le hand she had a great bundle of letters of all languages which she as i afterwards understood was to carry to all countries she also had large and beautiful wings full of eyes throughout with which she could mount aloft and fly swifter than any eagle
