First came the book then came the mark then the kids went missing. Thomas and Jillian can find anything possessed of a rare gift. The couple makes a living by uncovering relics of forgotten even undiscovered worlds. Some might call them archaeologists, others call them treasure hunters, but guided by cryptic phrases from a mystifying book and blessed with abilities that neither can explain, they know differently someone or something has chosen them. As the search for lost and powerful artifacts deepens, a dark danger is uncovered when their children disappear. The family is thrown into a deadly race against time as someone uses them to unleash an age-old evil. Is the caller rallying an army for war? It all begins with a stolen scroll and the appearance of a mysterious mark. Fans of the lands of Narnia, The Hobbit, or Indiana Jones will find this quest loaded with heart-pounding fantasy adventure. Prepare to embark on a journey of peril and rescue spanning multiple realms with unknown dangers and curious allies.
