the need for safety nets in sub saharan africa is vast in addition to being the world s poorest region sub saharan africa is also one of the most unequal in this context redistribution must be seen as a legitimate way to fight poverty and ensure shared prosperity and all the more so in countries where growth is driven by extractive industries that are not labor intensive and often employ very few poor people given that most african countries face difficult decisions about how to allocate limited resources among a number of social programs evidence is important do safety net programs actually benefit the poorest people this book demonstrates with empirical evidence that it is possible to reach the poorest and most vulnerable people with safety net programs and provides lessons for the effective use of targeting methods to achieve this outcome in the region ostervald 1770 1771 bible it is easy simply to attribute the high profile of sollers the numerous autobiographical details in his novels and also the espousal of so many different views and causes to egocentrism and opportunism alternatively one could say that they are all significant elements in an ongoing enquiry into the role of fiction in a society where attitudes are often thought to be determined more by images than by the written word given sollers s questioning of society s conventional images as in debord s notion of the spectacle his awareness of his own role in the media and his interest in developing a discourse on the visual arts how do such concerns come together to create new forms of fiction and a
