Illustrated Sporting & Dramatic News 1913 a 2015 whitney award nominee a powerful story of loss second chances and first love reminiscent of sarah dessen and john green when oakley nelson loses her older brother lucas to cancer she thinks she ll never recover between her parents arguing and the battle she s fighting with depression she feels nothing inside but a hollow emptiness when mom suggests they spend a few months in california with aunt jo oakley isn't sure a change of scenery will alter anything but she's willing to give it a try in California. Oakley discovers a sort of safety and freedom in Aunt Jo's beach house. Once they're settled, Mom hands her a notebook full of letters addressed to her from Lucas. As Oakley reads one each day, she realizes how much he loved her and each letter challenges her to be better and to continue to enjoy her life. He wants her to move on if only it were that easy. But then a surfer named Carson comes into her life and Oakley is blindsided. He makes her feel again as she lets him in. She is surprised by how much she cares for him and that's when things get complicated. How can she fall in love and be happy when Lucas never got the chance to do those very same things with her? Brother's dying words as guidance. Oakley knows she must learn to listen and trust again but will she have to leave the past behind to find happiness in the future? Sky Pony Press, with our good books, Racehorse and Arcade Imprints, is proud to publish a broad range of books for young readers: picture books for small children, chapter books for middle grade readers, and novels for young adults. Our list includes bestsellers for children who love to play Minecraft, stories told with LEGO bricks, books that teach lessons about tolerance, patience, and the environment, and much more. While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller, we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home.

Princess Evie's Ponies: Shimmer the Magic Ice Pony 2012-11-22 for every athlete or sports fanatic who knows she's just as good as the guys. This is for fans of the Running Dream by Wendelin Van Draanen, Grace Gold and Glory by Gabrielle Douglass, and Breakaway Beyond the Goal by Alex Morgan. The summer before Caleb and Tessa enter high school, friendship has blossomed into a relationship and their playful sports days are coming to an end. Caleb is getting ready to try out for the football team and Tessa is training for cross country, but all their structured plans derail in the final flag game when they lose. Tessa doesn't want to end her career as a loser. She really enjoys playing and if she's being honest, she likes it even more than running cross country. So what if she decided to play football instead? What would happen between her and Caleb or between her two best friends who are counting on her to try out for cross country with them? Will her parents be upset that she's decided to take her hobby to the next level this summer? Caleb and Tessa figure out just what it means to be a boyfriend, girlfriend, teammate, best friend, and someone worth cheering for. A great next choice for readers who have enjoyed Catherine Gilbert Murdock's Dairy Queen and Miranda Kenneally's Catching jordan slj fast paced football action realistic family drama and sweet romance will have readers looking for girl powered sports stories find ing plenty to like booklist tessa s ferocious competitiveness is appealing kirkus reviews the football girl serve s to illuminate the appropriately complicated emotions both of a young romance and of pursuing a dream heldring writes with insight and restraint the horn book
