that a sound culture is needed to underpin development employment and trade and an optimal development path this concept is discussed against the background of the author s contention that his own Japanese society has succumbed to unsustainable modern tendencies leading to the antithesis of sustainable development and placing the society and economy in a credibility trap into which it is predicted other countries like China might also fall professor Hiwaki presents a detailed theoretical framework for balanced socioeconomic development relevant to sustainable development of the global individuals to construct values and through them to become self empowering responsible participants in a democratic community rather than conceiving of power as domination the author identifies true power as self empowerment a notion based on self construction he proposes the vision of an authentically free self filled with a compassion that is a composite of reason and feeling such a composite self does not consciously manipulate language truth and desire to dominate and subordinate other individuals but uses them to construct values and norms that can enrich others to support his argument the author draws on both classical and contemporary philosophers as well as on literary sources this book is intended as an aid to believers in developing a daily time of morning revival with the Lord
