rosicrucian alchemy invites us to embark on a meditative path where the alembic becomes our heart and the philosopher s stone our spiritualised physical resurrection body and our initiated consciousness whether you re an alchemical enthusiast a seeker of inner truths or simply curious this book promises a transformative journey the spiritual alchemical journey when nature is embraced with wise loving and benevolent understanding nature becomes transparent on the one hand it is transfigured under the lightning flashes of divine forces and on the other hand it temporarily lifts the soul into angelic states of consciousness which fallen man can only glimpse for brief moments when listening to music when artistically creating or when contemplating the beauty of art or when man considers spiritual science like in goethe s natural science studies in johannes kepler s cosmogony in paracelus natural science and theological writings or in rudolf steiner s anthroposophy to name a few in nature processes and in their representation through spiritual symbols god s wisdom beauty and power are present they can be deciphered and they can also be the starting point of a striving for all inclusiveness wholeness and perfection of the individual human and humanity in god rosicrucian alchemy acknowledges the unity of man nature and macrocosm and its task is to research and utilize the diversity and unity of forces through spiritual science and spiritual technology and in doing so inspired by the deeds of christ nature becomes the body of the creative word and as it were the bride of god the physical human body as a creation of nature can become a matrix of perfection through purification and spiritualization as we create the resurrection body of christ within ourselves in spiritualizing our human constitution and deciphering nature as a condensed spirit we also redeem nature and lift it permanently into a higher state of evolution this is the true meaning of the preparing of the philosopher s stone which is also as stage of spiritual development that can be achieved on a meditative path that is inspired by the research and practice of christian rosenkreuz and rudolf steiner since the time of aristotle the making of knowledge and the making of objects have generally been considered separate enterprises yet during the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries the two became linked through a new philosophy known as science in the body of the artisan pamelah smith demonstrates how much early modern science owed to an unlikely source artists and artisans from goldsmiths to locksmiths and from carpenters to painters artists and artisans were much sought after by the new scientists for their intimate hands on knowledge of natural materials and the ability to manipulate them drawing on a fascinating array of new evidence from northern europe including artisans objects and their writings smith shows how artisans saw all knowledge as rooted in matter and nature with nearly two hundred images the body of the artisan provides astonishingly vivid examples of this renaissance synergy among art craft and science and recovers a forgotten episode of the scientific revolution an episode that forever altered the way we see the natural world
