a cyclopædia of canadian biography is a collection of brief biographies of persons distinguished in the professional military and political life and the commerce and industry of canada in the twentieth century the author explains generally speaking in comparing the biographies of the canadians of to day with those of 1886 and 1888 the reader gains a sense of this country s continuous expansion the present century has witnessed a marvellous development in the canadian west so that in these pages we find numerous records showing not merely the commercial but the intellectual progress of the provinces west of the great lakes stories of brilliant careers built up by men who were mere children in the east when the first volume was published the reader will also note in the biographies of business men which abound in these pages the ever increasing scale on which canadian commerce and enterprise everywhere is conducted so that what seemed large in 1886 is relatively small to day though some of the men whose names figure in the index are of less importance than others all play their part in our complex and vigorous social life and the story of their progress and fortunes cannot be really tedious to any sympathetic student of humanity
