this book explores the extent to which gendered approaches are evident and effective in spatial development in selected european countries beginning with an introduction to theories and concepts of gender space and development the book includes a brief historical review of gender in spatial planning and development throughout europe in general and an overview of different national frameworks in european countries comparing legal organisational and cultural similarities and differences this is followed by a critical reflection on how simplifications and stereotypes of gender concepts are used in the practice of spatial development the main part of the book offers a transnational discussion of planning practices on selected thematic topics it starts with gender sensitivity in urban master planning and
