the exodus towers features all the high octane action and richly imagined characters of the darwin elevator but the stakes have never been higher the sudden appearance of a second space elevator in brazil only deepens the mystery about the aliens who provided it the builders scavenger crew captain skyler luiken and brilliant scientist dr tania sharma have formed a colony around the new elevator's base utilizing mobile towers to protect humans from the builders' plague but they are soon under attack from a roving band of plague-immune soldiers cut off from the colony. Skyler must wage a one-man war against the new threat as well as murderous subhumans and thugs from Darwin all while trying to solve the puzzle of the builders' master plan before it's too late for the last vestiges of humanity. Praise for the Darwin Elevator: a hell of a fun book. James S. A. Corey, New York Times bestselling author of Abaddon's Gate. Jason M. Hough's first novel combines the rapid-fire action and memorable characters associated with Joss Whedon's short-lived Firefly TV series with the accessibility and scientific acumen of James S. A. Corey's Expanse series. Library Journal starred review: "The best part about alien stories is their mystery, and Jason Hough understands that like no other. Full of compelling characters and thick with tension, The Darwin Elevator delivers both despair and hope along with a gigantic dose of wonder. It's a brilliant debut, and Hough can take my money whenever he writes anything from now on." Kevin Hearne, New York Times bestselling author of The Iron Druid Chronicles. Newcomer Hough displays a talent for imaginative plotting and realistic dialogue, and the brisk pacing and cliffhanger ending will keep readers enthralled and eagerly awaiting the next installment. Publishers Weekly: Jason M. Hough does a great job with this huge story. The world of Darwin and the Elevator is deliciously complex and satisfying. Skyler, Tania, and all the other characters are delightfully drawn and fun to spend time with. The story unfolds with just the right balance of high adventure, espionage, humor, and emotional truth. As soon as you finish you'll want more. Analog: a debut novel unlike any other, this is something special. Something iconic. The Darwin Elevator is full of majesty and wonder, mystery and mayhem, colorful characters and insidious schemes. SF Signal: fun, action-packed, and entertaining. A sure contender for Science Fiction Debut of the Year. Pat S. Fantasy Hotlist: claustrophobic, intense, and satisfying. I couldn't put this book down. The Darwin Elevator depicts a terrifying world suspended on a delicate thread and forces you to read with held breath as you anticipate the inevitable fall. Hugh Howey, New York Times bestselling author of Wool. Hough writes with irresistible energy and gritty realism. He puts his characters through hell, blending a convincing plot with heart-stopping action and moments of raw terror as the world goes crazy in the shadow of unfathomable alien intentions. Sara Creasy, author of the Philip K. Dick Award-nominated Song of Scarabaeus.

Sal Umana is a psychotherapist and minister who directed a counseling center in New York City for the past thirty years after the attack on the World Trade Center on 9/11/01. Sal imagines God coming to him and asking who was the God everyone was talking about. God is very upset because he is not the God of the al-Qaeda suicide bombers nor is he the God of the President's infinite justice in whose name George Bush declares war on terrorism. Sal, the therapist, spends four months in weekly therapy sessions in which it turns out that the God we all grew up with never really existed. Instead, God turns out to be the eternal spirit of love and not the tribal imperialist god of domination and vengeance of traditional religions this became the first book of the trilogy the day god died and was published in 2002 since god was no longer the almighty big person with an omnipotent ego what was sal doing with an ego so he did another course of therapy self analysis called the day my ego died sal comes to the realization that we are not individual egos but part of the oneness of being including god ourselves and all of reality this is zen existential psychotherapy christian mysticism and buddhist awakening all blended together finally for the tenth anniversary of 9 11 01 sal completes his trilogy with back to earth a spirituality for the age of terrorism in this third book sal teaches us the difference between i and we ego and love life and death and time and eternity in these three volumes sal dispenses a lifetime of learning from psychotherapy meditation and ministry that can help the reader negotiate the anxiety of the age of terrorism
