one day greg mortenson set out to climb k2 the world s second highest mountain in honour of his younger sister but when another member of his group fell ill they turned around and greg became lost in the mountains of pakistan he wandered into a poor village where the chief and his people took him in moved by their kindness greg promised to return and build a school for the children this is the remarkable story of how against all the odds greg built not only one but more than sixty schools in pakistan and afghanistan and how he dedicated his life to establishing literacy and peace and understanding

Listen to the Wind 2009 tells the true story of a man who became lost and delirious after an unsuccessful trek to the top of k2 was saved by the locals of a remote himalayan village and kept his vow to return one day to build them a new school as a gesture of sincere appreciation and gratitude for what they did for him in his time of need greg mortenson the bestselling author of three cups of tea is a man who has built a global reputation as a selfless humanitarian and children s crusader and he s been nominated for the nobel peace prize but as bestselling author jon krakauer demonstrates in this extensively researched and penetrating book he is not all that he appears to be based on wide ranging interviews with former employees board members and others who have intimate knowledge of mortenson and his charity the central asia institute three cups of deceit uncovers multiple layers of deception behind mortenson s public image was his crusade really inspired by a desire to repay the kindness of villagers who nursed him back to health when he became lost on his descent down k2 was he abducted and held for eight days by the taliban has his charity built all of the schools that he has claimed this book is a passionately argued plea for the truth and a tragic tale of good intentions gone very wrong 100 of jon krakauer s proceeds from the sale of three cups of deceit will be donated to the stop girl trafficking project at the american himalayan foundation himalayanfoundation.org live project stopgirltrafficking
