a lifetime of cinematic writing culminates in this breathtaking statement on film s unique ability to move us cinema is commonly hailed as the universal language but how does it communicate so effortlessly across cultural and linguistic borders in the eloquent screen influential film critic gilberto perez makes a capstone statement on the powerful ways in which film acts on our minds and senses drawing on a lifetime s worth of viewing and re viewing perez invokes a dizzying array of masters past and present including chaplin ford kiarostami eisenstein malick mizoguchi haneke hitchcock and godard to explore the transaction between filmmaker and audience he begins by explaining how film fits into the rhetorical tradition of persuasion and argumentation next perez explores how film embodies the central tropes of rhetoric metaphor metonymy allegory and synecdoche and concludes with a thrilling account of cinema s spectacular capacity to create relationships of identification with its audiences although there have been several attempts to develop a poetics of film there has been no sustained attempt to set forth a rhetoric of film one that bridges aesthetics and audience grasping that challenge the eloquent screen shows how cinema as the consummate contemporary art form establishes a thoroughly modern rhetoric in which different points of view are brought into clear focus
