on january 7 1943 the german government in order to free adult soldiers for frontline duty ordered that all male students of secondary schools born in 1926 and 1927 be drafted into anti air craft service in the homeland students were to arrive in batteries on february 18 1943 after serving from one year those born in 1926 to thirteen months those born in 1927 the boys were transferred into the reich labor service and from there into the armed forces they were replaced by boys born in 1928 who served to the end of the war about 200 000 boys became flakhelfer most were called up at sixteen but many like the author karl heinz schlesier were only fifteen the boys served in batteries of light and heavy flak although the government insisted school programs continue for flakhelfer the effort was a sham especially where heavy bombing occurred schlesier a student of rethel gymnasium in düsseldorf served as flakhelfer in the regions that suffered the most numerous and heaviest air raids of the war in the rhineland düsseldorf and the ruhr recklinghausen his is a coming of age story in a world gone mad where a teenage boy launched shrapnel into a sky filled with bombers where christmas tree like flares marked cities about to burn where working beside russian pows protecting industries with slave labor courting a girl among bombed out ruins and spending leave with family hiding in claustrophobic bomb shelters was unremarkable as was finally being thrown unprepared into a disintegrating frontline only fifty kilometers from his childhood home the memoir is based solely on schlesier s diary notes and memories of that period he has consciously avoided including what he learned after the war his views opinions and interpretations of events are from inside the germany of that time if some are inconvenient today they mirror the chaos of the world he experienced then to live or not to live was accidental schlesier wrote this memoir as an old man in response to a granddaughter's question about what he did in the war this is his answer perhaps he also gives a voice to the silent generation of boys born in germany in 1926 and 1927 this generation has been silent because the horror it knew pales in comparison to the horror of the holocaust
