i love dogs who does not it is a natural feeling to love those who love us and dogs were always fond of me thousands can say the same and i shall therefore find plenty of sympathy while unfolding my dog s tale this attachment of mine to the canine family in general and their affection towards myself have induced me like the vizier in the arabian nights of happy memory to devote some time to the study of their language its idiom is not so difficult as many would suppose there is a simplicity about it that often shames the dialects of man which have been so altered and refined that we discover people often saying one thing when they mean exactly the reverse nothing of the sort is visible in the great canine tongue whether the tone in which it is uttered be gruff or polished sharp or insinuating it is at least sincere mankind would often be puzzled how to use it
