At the beginning of the novel, Pip is visiting his parents' graves when a mysterious stranger, clearly an escaped prisoner, grabs hold of him and makes several demands of the young boy. Following these demands, Pip steals food and a file, items the prisoner requests, but the man is caught by authorities anyway. This deed serves as the inciting incident of the novel as it is later revealed in the text that this escaped prisoner, Magwitch, is Pip's anonymous benefactor.

emphasizing research findings and basic concepts rather than theories, this book surveys the major areas in the psychology of learning from a consistent behaviorist, i.e., B.F. Skinner's point of view. It explores the continuities between human learning and the learning of other animals. The book organizes the phenomena of learning in a systematic way, moving from behavior without learning (evolution) to learning without words (basics in nonhuman behavior) and learning to learning with words (human learning and memory).
