as one of britain s foremost poets ben okri is rightly acclaimed for his use of language and as a booker prize winning novelist this skill was shown to particular effect in both starbook his most recent work and in the famished road in tales of freedom he brings both poetry and story together in a fascinating new form using writing and image pared down to their essentials where haiku and story meet thus we discover pinprop the slave to an old couple lost in a clearing who holds the keys to the universe in his quirky hands then there is the beautifully dressed black russian on the train helping to film a new version of eugene onegin later in the chaos of the aftermath of war orphaned children paint mysterious shapes of bulls birds hybrid creatures and we wonder if grief has unhinged them into genius and who is that woman who hardly speaks who presses a tiny flower into the palm of the young boy on the bus and then leaves his life forever tales of freedom offers a haunting necklace of images which flash and sparkle as the light shines on them quick and stimulating to read but slowly burning in the memory they offer a different more transcendent way of looking at our extreme gritty world and show the wealth of freedom that s available beyond the confines of our usual perceptions ordinary enchantments investigates magical realism as the most important trend in contemporary international fiction defines its characteristics and narrative techniques and proposes a new theory to explain its significance in the most comprehensive critical treatment of this literary mode to date wendy b faris discusses a rich array of examples from magical realist novels around the world including the work not only of latin american writers like gabriel garcia marquez but also of authors like salman rushdie gunter grass toni morrison and ben okri faris argues that by combining realistic representation with fantastic elements so that the marvelous seems to grow organically out of the ordinary magical realism destabilizes the dominant form of realism based on empirical definitions of reality gives it visionary power and thus constitutes what might be called a remystification of narrative in the west noting the radical narrative heterogeneity of magical realism the author compares its cultural role to that of traditional shamanic performance which joins the worlds of daily life and that of the spirits because of that capacity to bridge different worlds magical realism has served as an effective decolonizing agent providing the ground for marginal voices submerged traditions and emergent literatures to develop and create masterpieces at the same time this process is not limited to postcolonial situations but constitutes a global trend that replenishes realism from within in addition to describing what many consider to be the progressive cultural work of magical realism faris also confronts the recent accusation that magical realism and its study as a global phenomenon can be seen as a form of commodification and an imposition of cultural homogeneity and finally drawing on the narrative innovations and cultural scenarios that magical realism enacts she extends those principles toward issues of gender and the possibility of a female element within magical realism as breathing is essential for our life to sustain so is criticism for all types of literature to flourish it regulates and controls quality production of the literary activities it links the creators of literature to the readers it is of various types say for instance theoretical criticism practical criticism eco criticism and so on critics of the different languages of the world have been contributing to the domain of criticism over a wide span of time period say from bc to ad they have set the yard sticks or the principles or parameters or the rules of evaluation of literature and collection of such rules is called as literary theories the present edition modern and ancient literary theories is an exhaustive critical commentary on the chosen critics of the world level we know the writers have been creating literature in almost every language which is written and read but who would keep an account of its worth it may or may not be up to the standard of quality reading and appreciation so it comes to share of critics to shoulder this responsibility to allow fine quality literature to flourish and worth less literature to sink down and for this process to administer the critics need the literary theories which this book supplies in short concise and appropriate form besides the community of critics the collection of the literary theories is needed by the young aspirants of literary studies who want to be story writers poets dramatists novelists and the writers of the tales these guidelines of literary criticism tell them of the basic requirements with the help of which these literary genres can be composed these critical standards also sharpen their literary craftsmanship and intellectuality every year so many college and university students prepare for their examination and they have to lay their hand on different books on literary theories but in this book sincere efforts have been done to induct the study material at one place to minimize the inconvenience that is caused to the community of the students this book is self sufficient and self explanatory to deal with the critical standards of the various critics and it will help those readers pursuing studies in the principles of criticism or literary theories the author would like to express his sincere thanks to the publisher horizon books a division of ignited minds edutech pvt ltd and his friend mr maman chand for motivating him to write this book and mr sunil saini and mr nandan singh for assisting him in the computer work to design this book special thanks are also due to the members of the author s family who fully helped him to write this book dr p c cambodia

the infinite longing for home is a groundbreaking study of ben okri s and k s maniam s literary problematization of home in relation to subjectivity and the nation within and beyond the context of nigeria and malaysia drawing on lacan Žižek laclau and mouffe and weaving through history politics philosophy and literature this book critically examines the motives and means by which peoples forced to live together in a country love and hate each other and overlook the truths about themselves their actions and beliefs it looks into why some embrace heterogeneity and open endedness while others are internally compelled to over identify passionately with their religion and race and to posit theirs as irreducibly distinct from and superior to others the infinite longing for home also traces through okri s and maniam s writings a way out of today s political aporia a path to the re creation of a new society humbled and unified by the recognition of its participation in flawed humanity
