Voices ; The Walls 1976 lee flora is a shy fourteen year old when she leaves small town indiana for a scholarship at ault an exclusive boarding school in massachusetts her head is filled with images from the school brochure of handsome boys in sweaters leaning against old brick buildings girls running with lacrosse sticks across pristine athletics fields everyone singing hymns in chapel but as she soon learns ault is a minefield of unstated rules and incomprehensible social rituals and lee must work hard to find and maintain her place in the pecking order

Magic Cat 1978 as post colonial mayyazhi mahe where history and time flowed with the water under the rusted iron bridge tries to come to terms with its new found independence young men leave to seek their fortunes abroad and many of the older generation orphaned by the departure of the french struggle to eke out a living even as they remember their days of plenty under their foreign masters caught up in their suffering kumaran vaidyar does everything he can to keep the people of his beloved mayyazhi from starving but entrusts his own children to the care of his beloved wife who is no more meanwhile father alphonse waves his magic wand and changes pebbles into candy and waits for his good for nothing son to return through all this untroubled by the woes of the elders shivan shashi and elsie spend an idyllic childhood in sunny sleepy mayyazhi until the day of reckoning catches up with them and they pay the price of growing up mukundan s two seminal mayyazhi novels on the banks of the mayyazhi and god s mischief are at one level the saga of mahe mayyazhi with its legacy of french colonialism at another they are despite an exuberant parade of myths and legends a chronology of the futile search of the exiled through the crowded alleys of history mukundan has made mahe into the malgudi of malayalam literature s prasannarajan times of india mukundan s novels provide a reading of the history of colonialism unavailable in a historian s ruvre prof k n panikkar interrogating colonialism novel as imagined history

Vaikom Muhammad Basheer:Ezhuthum Jeevithavum (3rd edition) 2008-07-01 in the novel there is a historical romance but its subtext is a political one of contemporary significance in the novel there is a subplot with subhadra at the centre through what she does or what happens to her c v is projecting a futuristic vision of the new woman in the indian context the conventional image of the woman is replaced by an imagined figure that was to emerge on the indian scene another unique feature of this novel is the introduction for the first time of untouchables the channans of south travancore hence is fiction asserting humanistic values over and above the taboos and superstitions of yester years

Basheer Ezhuthiya Kathukal 2010-09-16 this new edition designed for greater visual appeal and ease of use offers the student more opportunities to gain the twin power of grammar and words while it calls on the experience of its use for over 30 years it has new special features such as function based exercises listening tasks etc support work and dictionary reference pronunciation and spelling have been strengthened the choice of texts old and new has as before received considerable attention the new gul mohar is a comprehensive package which preserves and fortifies the tried and tested features of the original gul mohar approach

Voices ; The Walls 1976 najeeb s dearest wish is to work in the gulf and earn enough money to send back home he achieves his dream only to be propelled by a series of incidents grim and absurd into a slave like existence herding goats in the middle of the saudi desert memories of the lush verdant landscape of his village and of his loving family haunt najeeb whose only solace is the companionship of goats in the end the lonely young man contrives a hazardous scheme to escape his desert prison goat days was published to acclaim in malayalam and became a bestseller one of the brilliant new talents of malayalam literature benyamin s wry and tender telling transforms this strange and bitter comedy of najeeb s life in the desert into a universal tale of loneliness and alienation

The Legends of Khasak 2008-05-14 ý dr georgeýs comprehensive study is thus valuable not only for throwing a revealing light on the immediate subject but also for its relevance to the wider subject of western influence on india as a whole it is only after inquiries have been conducted in depth like dr georgeýs covering the whole country and all the divers aspects of the problem that anything like a definitive picture for all india can be expected to emerge but even by itself dr georgeýs study has an importance transcending malayalam language and literature or the life and culture of the people of kerala ý

Baṣīrinte pūnkāvanam 2003 winner of the jcb prize for literature 2020 a novel of epic dimensions easily among the most accomplished fictional works in malayalam k satchidanandan vavachan is a pulayan who gets the opportunity to play a policeman with an immense moustache in a musical drama the character appears in only two scenes and has no dialogue however vavachan s performance and his moustache terrify the mostly upper caste audience reviving in them memories of characters of dalit power such as ravanam afterwards vavachan whose people were traditionally banned from growing facial hair refuses to shave off his moustache endless tales invent and reinvent the legend of his magic moustache in which birds roost which allows its owner to appear simultaneously in different places and disappear in an instant which grows as high as the sky and as thick as rainclouds and turn vavachan into moustache a figure of mythic proportions set in kuttanad a below sea level farming region on the south west coast of kerala the novel is as much a story of this land as it is of vavachan and its other inhabitants as they navigate the intricate waterscape stories unfold in which ecology power dynamics and politics become key themes originally published in malayalam as meesha s hareesh s moustache is a contemporary classic mixing magic myth and metaphor into a tale of far reaching resonance

Sangam Gulmohar Class 5 Term 1 2006 in the city he discovers the manuscript of a secret novel called a spring without fragrance that tells the story of the arab spring and its failure but the book is a dangerous one and anyone who reads it disappears a literary thriller a tribute to the power of books in the face of state repression and a story of indelible love this follow up to benyamin s award winning jasmine days is a moving and urgent novel of our times

Prep 2010 perhaps the only novel to have been reprinted nearly every year for over a hundred years indulekha 1889 is widely held to be the first malayalam novel often called an accidental and flawed work at its core lies a love story the setting of the novel is the nair community of kerala which had for centuries practised polyandrous matriliney a most unusual form of inheritance through the woman whom both property and authority flavoured it gives us glimpses of prevalent social practices much debated amongst a people already under colonial pressure to change their ways of life written by a nair indulekha is not a grandiose outpouring but the author's effort to achieve certain social goals firstly to create a novel much like those of the english authors he had read and secondly to illustrate nair society at that time both of which met with success the novel influenced the deliberations of the malabar marriage commission which it predated and of which chandum enon was a member this novel will appeal to general readers interested in indian writings in translation students of literature history and culture political and legal theory and gender studies will also find it useful

God's Mischief 2002 national and state literature akademi awardee m t vasudevan nair's novel is set against the backdrop of the crumbling matrilineal order of kerala in a newly independent india as freedom and democracy promise prosperity a young upper caste boy full of idealism learns to deal with a world that is less than ideal

Marthanda Varma 1998 the powerful memory of a former love rules radhika's inner world as she builds a small time practice in law and attempts normalcy in a marriage she neither wanted nor resisted raped at age ten raped again as a young collegiate she is abandoned twice first by her father and later by christy who loved her but takes her through a wedding ceremony only to leave her later the same day when christy returns sixteen years later shattered and unstable the burnt and withered roots of love bloom again trauma betrayal and loneliness are the colors that paint this picture of physical and emotional violence that radhika endures

Gul Mohar Reader-5 2005 naalukettu the house around the courtyard is the story of a young boy appunni set in a matrilineal nair joint family a taravad in the author's native village kudallur fascinated with accounts of the prestigious naalukettu taravad from which his mother was expelled appunni visits the house only to be despised and rejected by all appunni grows up to earn enough money and returns to buy his ancestral home but his victory soon turns into ashes when his father's murderer turns out to be the same man who was the only sympathetic adult in appunni's lonely teenage years

Goat Days 2012-07-17 the only novel of one of kerala's leading women writers lalithambika antharjanam's agnisakshi is a telling account of a woman's life glowing as though purified in the fire of sacrifice set against the history of kerala and life customs habits and culture of the namboodiri community along with the fervent cries of the indian national freedom struggle the characters act out their unforgettable roles tethi the dazzling but disappointed bride who renounces worldly life unni namboodiri whose adherence to the vedic way of life destroys his personal happiness and thankam unni's nair cousin and the mighty aphan namboodiri's daughter seeking her own liberation from the past true to the lyrical and emotional tone of the original vasanthi sankaranarayanan's translation offers a moving portrait of upper class upper caste kerala society just before and after independence

Kunju Karyangalude Odeythampuran 2011-04-02 the indian state of kerala is one of the largest blocs of migrants in the oil economies of the arab gulf looking closely at the cultural archives produced by and on the gulf migrants in malayalam the predominant language of kerala this book takes stock of circular migration beyond its economics it combines formal and thematic analyses of photographs films and literature with anthropological and historical details to offer a nuanced understanding of the construction of the gulf and its translation to the cultural imaginary of kerala it explores the dissonance between the private and public discourses on the gulf among migrants and non migrants and demonstrates the role of this disjuncture in the continued fascination for gulf migrant lives an enquiry into the various dimensions of the gulf in kerala as an acknowledged means of living as a rumour an object of gossip a public secret or even a private thrill this book debunks the idea of language as a common entity and studies the tentative borders built within finally it explores the resources possibilities and perils of affiliative communities constructed along and across those borders

Tales of Athiranippadam 2013 in this award winning novel tharoor has masterfully recast the two thousand year old epic the mahabharata with fictional but highly recognizable events and characters from twentieth century indian politics nothing is sacred in this deliciously irreverent witty and deeply intelligent retelling of modern indian history and the ancient indian epic the mahabharata alternately outrageous and instructive hilarious and moving it is a dazzling tapestry of prose and verse that satirically but also poignantly chronicles the struggle for indian freedom and independence

Selected Malayalam Short Stories 2004 the book is a study of literature in india in the context of recent discussions on modernity and its theoretical extensions such as the everyday and the social imaginary it is a critique of the aesthetics and politics of modernity as they are embodied in indian bhasha literature of the past two centuries the primary objective of the book is to explore the trajectory of modernity after indian literature encountered colonialism in the early 19th century the intricate ways in which the bhasha imagination negotiated questions around concepts such as colonialism aesthetics the literary the historical and the social have received focused attention in the analysis although the study acknowledges the european provenance of modernity as a historical idea it also recognizes the inherent complexity of the concept and its equivocal connotations when used with reference to the polyphonic bhasha communities in india theoretical issues debated in relation to modernity such as its conceptual affinities with the western enlightenment project its ideological investment in european aesthetics and its implication for the evolution of what might be called the hermetic aesthetic are significant to this study the work also examines the regional strengths of the social imaginary that render a conventionally conceived modernity inadequate in explaining the uniquely modern strengths of the indian bhasha imagination

Western Influence on Malayalam Language and Literature 1972 this is the first of three volume anthology of writings in twenty two indian languages including english that intends to present the wonderful diversities of themes and genres of indian literature this volume comprises representative specimens of poems from different languages in english translation along with perceptive surveys of each literature during the period between 1850 and 1975
