Awards ... Third Division, National Railroad Adjustment Board 1874 this text looks at the ways in which women as mothers are positioned in society in terms of ethnicity social class and marital status using case study material the author expands her assessment to analyse the way women s educational experience influences their involvement in their children s schooling the book examines the support of the mother in her child s schooling to reveal the part she plays in social reproduction and to recognize her centrality to an understanding of social class the book should be of interest to undergraduates in the sociology of education gender studies and to those studying pgce primary education

The National Centennial. The International Exhibition of 1876. Message of the President of the United States to Congress (etc.) 1972 when first published this book had a significant influence on the campaign for comprehensive schools and it spoke to generations of working class students who were either deterred by the class barriers erected by selective schools and elite universities or having broken through them to gain university entry found themselves at sea the authors admit at the end of the book they have raised and failed to answer many questions and in spite of the disappearance of the majority of grammar schools many of those questions still remain unanswered
