when kobie krüger her game ranger husband and their three young daughters moved to one of the most isolated corners of the world a remote ranger station in the mahlangeni region of south africa s vast kruger national park she might have worried that she would become engulfed with loneliness and boredom yet for kobie and her family the seventeen years spent in this spectacularly beautiful park proved to be the most magical and occasionally the most hair raising of their lives kobie recounts their enchanting adventures and extraordinary experiences in this vast reserve a place where bathed in golden sunlight hippos basked in the glittering waters of the letaba river storks and herons perched along the shoreline and fruit bats hung in the sausage trees but as the krugers settled in they discovered that not all was peace and harmony they soon became accustomed to living with the unexpected the sneaky hyenas who stole blankets and cooking pots the sinister looking pythons that slithered into the house and the usually placid elephants who grew foul tempered in the violent heat of the summer and one terrible day a lion attacked kobus in the bush and nearly killed him yet nothing prepared the krugers for their greatest adventure of all the raising of an orphaned prince a lion cub who when they found him was only a few days old and on the verge of death reared on a cocktail of love and bottles of fat enriched milk leo soon became an affectionate rambunctious and adored member of the family it is the rearing of this young king and the hilarious endeavours to teach him to become a real lion who could survive with his own kind in the wild that lie at the heart of this endearing memoir it is a memoir of a magical place and time that can never be recaptured in the piazza a man lies dead no one will say if they witnessed his killing this presents a challenge to the investigating officer a man who earnestly believes in the values of a democratic and modern society indeed his enquiries are soon blocked off by a wall of silence and vested interests he must work against the community to save it and expose the truth the narrative moves on two levels that of the investigator who reveals a chain of savage crimes and that of the bystanders and watchers of those complicit with secret power whose gossipy furtive conversations have only one end to stop the truth coming out this novel about the mafia is also a mesmerizing demonstration of how that organization sustains itself it is both a beautifully tautly written story and a brave act of denunciation the time of carnival represents a wild time at the end of winter and pointing to the beginning of a new season it is characterized by the irruption of border figures animal masks characters which recall the world of the dead and which bring within themselves the germ of a vital force of the energy that produces the reawakening of nature and announces the growth and fertility of the new crops this wild domain shows itself under the shapes of a contiguity between human and animal the costumes the masks refer to a world in which the characteristics of the human and those of the animal are fused and intertwined among these figures in particular emerge those of the wild man the human being who takes on animal like attributes and aspects and of the bear the animal that more than all the others gets as close as possible to the human and seems to reflect a deformed image of it such symbolic images come from far off times and places to tell a story that belongs to our common origins the bear assumes attributes and functions alike in very different cultural contexts such as the sámi of finland or north american hunter gatherers and represents a boundary between the world of nature and the human world between the domain of animals and the difficult construction of humanity a process continued for centuries perhaps millennia and which cannot still be said complete
