communications between gynecologists and women patients in a private practitioner s office and in a community clinic intimate adversaries provides a close up view of what takes place in medical interactions centered on reproductive care todd is especially sensitive to the difficulties caused by the different perspectives of doctor and patient whereas doctors usually concentrate on a biomedical approach patients view their biological concerns as embedded in broader contextual experiences women tell stories about their health and reproduction to communicate these comprehensive concerns when the stories are ignored the women are at risk of receiving inadequate medical care writers in political economy and feminist theory have contributed in depth studies of society and medicine less has been said about the relation ship among the epistemological roots of science the development of the medical model the treatment of women patients and
