Regular contact with other families can be a vital lifeline for parents with young children: a chance to make friends, ask questions, learn new skills, and gain confidence in their own abilities. As a parent, Rudolf Steiner's insight into the spiritual, sensory, and intellectual needs of early childhood has inspired a unique kind of parent and child group. Drawing on this approach, Dot Male's book shows parents how they can join together with others to create a supportive family community. Illustrated with case studies from around the world, her lively, accessible guide to running a thriving parent and child group explains how to create a calm, harmonious space; use rhythm and ritual to structure a session; devise appropriate toys, crafts, games, and outdoor play; celebrate seasonal festivals and the cycle of the year; fulfill key health, safety, and legal requirements. Written with the needs of busy parents in mind, the handbook can be used as a quick read for inspiration and ideas or as a comprehensive reference. Each chapter includes an introductory overview, a summary of key points, and for those who wish to explore the issues further, book lists and useful contacts.
