first in depth dictionary on the history and art of book binding this volume examines a number of different book lists from a variety of european countries during the fifteenth sixteenth and seventeenth centuries it offers a wide ranging re evaluation of one of the most interesting and underused resources for early modern book history annually published since 1930 the international bibliography of historical sciences ibohs is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times the works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically the bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors early modern naples has been characterized as a marginal wild and exotic place on the fringes of the european world and as such an appropriate target of attempts by catholic missionaries and others to civilize the city historiographically bypassed in favour of venice florence and rome naples is frequently seen as emblematic of the cultural and political decline in the italian peninsula and as epitomizing the problems of southern italy yet as this volume makes plain such views blind us to some of its most extraordinary qualities and limit our understanding not only of one of the world s great capital cities but also of the wider social cultural and political dynamics of early modern europe as the centre of spanish colonial power within europe during the vicerealty and with a population second only to paris in early modern europe naples is a city that deserves serious study further as a habsburg dominion it offers vital points of comparison with non european sites which were subject to european colonialism while european colonization outside europe has received intense scholarly attention its cultural impact and representation within europe remain under explored too much has been taken for granted too few questions have been posed in the sphere of the visual arts investigation reveals that neapolitan urbanism architecture painting and sculpture were of the highest quality during this period while differing significantly from those of other italian cities for long ignored or treated as the subaltern sister of rome this urban treasure house is only now receiving the attention from scholars that it has so long deserved this volume addresses the central paradoxes operating in early modern italian scholarship it seeks to illuminate both the historiographical pressures that have marginalized naples and to showcase important new developments in neapolitan cultural history and art history those developments showcased here include both theoretical or methodological innovation and new empirical approaches thus this volume illuminates new models of cultural history designed to ask new questions of naples and tell new stories that have implications beyond the kingdom of naples for the study of early modern italy and indeed early modern europe what competences are needed for
