important aspects of identity belonging and community problems people who actually live in the estate of brick lane feel being patronized by ali's novel the more or the less just to show how critics reacted to ali's masterpiece i will give two examples briefly ian jack the editor of far north east of the country next to the indian state of assam and was until the partition of india part of assam and not bengal and nor are her novel's principal characters sylhettis however are the people her author outlining their objections to the shameful way the book depicts the community they feel the book portrays bangladeshis in brick lane as backward uneducated and unsophisticated 2 in addition the treatment of language and time in the book is of just the same importance it makes ali's novel somewhat unique and different while brick lane is meant to be satirical it can be read as a drama for in terms of living the novel focusses on the buddhist aspect that its characters have been put on
