French Inside Out 2003-09-02 after more than three centuries of silence the voice of francesco cavalli is being heard loud and clear on the operatic stages of the world the coincidence of productions at la scala milan and covent garden london in the same month september 2008 of two different operas signals a new stage in the recovery of these extraordinary works confined until now to special venues committed to early music opera festivals conservatory and university productions the works of the composer who is credited with having invented the genre of opera as we know it are finally enjoying a renaissance a new edition of cavalli s twenty eight operas is in preparation and the composer and his works are at the center of a great deal of new scholarship ranging from the study of sources and production issues to the cultural context of opera of this period in the face of such burgeoning interest this collection of essays considers the cavalli revival from various points of view in particular it explores the multiple issues involved in the transformation of an operatic manuscript into a performance although focused on the works of cavalli much of this material can transfer easily to other operatic repertoires following an introductory part reflecting back on four decades of cavalli performances by some of the conductors responsible for the revival of interest in the composer the collection is divided into four further parts the manuscript scores giasone production and interpretation making librettos and cavalli beyond venice

Life Elementary. Student's Book 2018 this richly illustrated volume presents the remarkable results of the italian archaeological mission s investigations at the site of the walled town of barāqish in interior yemen ancient yathill of the sabaeans and minaeans between 1986 and 2007

Acta Ecclesiae Mediolanensis a S. Carolo Card 1846 the papers of this volume focus on the sacred landscapes of ancient sicily religious and cultural dimensions of greek sanctuaries are assessed in light of the results of recent excavations and new readings of literary sources the material dimension of cult practices in ancient sanctuaries is the central issue of all contributions with a focus on the findings from ancient akragas great attention is also paid to past ritual activities which are framed in three complementary areas of enquiry firstly the architectural setting of sanctuaries is examined beyond temple buildings to assess the wider context of their structural and spatial complexity secondly the material culture of votive deposition and religious feasting is analysed in terms of performative characteristics and through the lens of anthropological approaches thirdly the significance of gender in cultic practice is investigated in light of the fresh data retrieved from the field the new findings presented in this volume contribute to close the existing research gaps in the study of sanctuaries in sicily as well as the wider practice of greek religion

Pubblicazioni del R. Istituto di Studi Superiori pratici e di perfezionamento in Firenze, sezione di medicina e chirurgia e scuola di farmacia 1885 this volume brings together unpublished italian and albanian archaeological reports and new archaeological studies from recent fieldwork that throw new light on the archaeology and history of the pavllas river valley the mediterranean alluvial plain in the territory of butrint ancient butthrotum in southwestern albania it gives prominence for the first time to two important sites kalivo and Çuka e aitoit which are here reinterpreted and shown to have played major roles in the early history of butrint as it evolved in the later first millennium bc to emerge as the key city of chaonia in epirus butrint 7 also presents the full excavation report of the late bronze age and hellenistic fortified site of mursi in addition to other butrint foundation surveys and excavations in the hinterland of butrint including the roman villa maritima at diaporit the villa suburbana on the vrina plain and roman sites on alinura bay and at the customs house as well as new surveys of the early modern triangular fortress and a survey to locate the lost venetian village of zarópulo the volume also features a new study of the hellenistic bronze statuette of pan found on mount mile and of his sanctuary at butrint the volume concludes with a comprehensive reassessment of the pavllas river valley in relation to butrint from the palaeolithic to the modern eras examining how dominion territory environment and the corrupting sea reshaped butrint and its fluvial corridor diachronically and particularly brought profound territorial economic and social alterations under the roman empire
