suicide cannot be read as simply another novel it is in a sense the author's own oblique public suicide note a unique meditation on this most extreme of refusals presenting itself as an investigation into the suicide of a close friend perhaps real perhaps fictional more than twenty years earlier levé gives us little by little a striking portrait of a man with all his talents and flaws who chose to reject his life and all the people who loved him in favor of oblivion gradually through levé's casually obsessive pointillist beautiful ruminations we come to know a stoic sensible thoughtful man who bears more than a slight psychological resemblance to levé himself but suicide is more than just a compendium of memories of an old friend it is a near exhaustive catalog of the ramifications and effects of the act of suicide and a unique and melancholy farewell to life
