decade support has come from the federal governments and other funding agencies in norway sweden and denmark through the secretariat for scan dinavian cultural cooperation a number of independent studies have already been published dealing with various aspects of learning disabilities in the literacy skills of reading and writing the largest and most comprehensive study was the bergen project a longitudinal study of an entire cohort of children with special emphasis on those who developed specific learning disabilities in reading and writing dyslexia these dyslexic children were studied diagnosed and treated over a period of nine years along with various control and comparison groups which included a large subgroup with general learning disabilities retarded the bergen project involved the collection of voluminous data the children were identified by means of special diagnostic tests and treated using remedial materials and techniques that had been developed to deal with various types of dyslexia the ophthalmology team not only tested the children but they also prescribed and provided glasses and even performed surgery when necessary the pediatric neurologists did general pediatric and neurological examinations following up many of the cases with eegs and ct computerized tomography brain x rays in an era of change in education the time is right to refocus attention on guided reading practices guided reading remains an anchor in classroom literacy programs but how has it changed with the new shifts in education in this book dr michael p ford provides a rigor and insight we are truly handing over the key to the kingdom of all the subjects we teach reading is first among equals grounded in advice from effective classrooms nationwide enhanced with more than 40 video clips reading reconsidered takes you into the trenches with actionable guidance from real life educators and instructional champions the authors address the anxiety inducing world of common core state standards distilling from those standards four key ideas that help hone teaching practices both generally and in preparation for assessments this core of the core comprises the first half of the book and instructs educators on how to teach students to read harder texts closely read texts rigorously and intentionally read nonfiction more effectively and write more effectively in direct response to texts the second half of reading reconsidered reinforces these principles coupling them with the fundamentals of reading instruction a host of techniques and subject specific tools to reconsider how teachers approach such essential topics as vocabulary interactive reading and student autonomy reading reconsidered breaks an overly broad issue into clear easy to implement approaches filled with practical tools including 44 video clips of exemplar teachers demonstrating the techniques and principles in their classrooms note for online access of this content please visit resources to help you and your students use it to its full potential this book chronicles the journey of seven schools serving students of poverty english language learners ell s and students of color which were able to sustain school improvement for a decade on either state and or national criteria that measure student performance outcomes the book shares stories of these seven schools and demonstrates that it takes an entire school working together with their communities adding to the social and cultural capital of their students and families to create and nurture what we call a learning partnership for sustainable school improvement the answers for how these schools sustained school improvement and are effective schools is evident from their school student metrics that validate the school s ability to meet and sustain external mandates of high performance over time the seven individual case stories illustrate that what matters most is what happens in the school itself it is the internal culture of caring and respecting each other and working from an additive perspective of valuing students for their unique gifts and abilities rather than exclusively focusing on increasing test scores that makes these school stories unique this is not about heroic leadership but leadership spread out and shared among professionals working together to achieve common goals around shared values and beliefs this book is about using resources in ways that value human capital as the greatest asset in the school to ensure that educators feel a sense of commitment connection and passion for their work together with students their families and their communities that enable them to excel together we offer readers seven cases that demonstrate there is no cookie cutter approach to having an effective school rather there is a theory in practice that grounds the learning partnership depicted as a tree within a sustainable school improvement culture this sustainable culture connects shared leadership and accountability resourcefulness a humanistic philosophy additive schooling and results in an organization synergy that sustains organizational and collective efficacy for achieving results in these schools that other educators in schools with similar demographics are often unable to sustain or attain skill building through potent instruction day by day in
