A Catalogue of Books Relating to the History and Topography of Italy 1812 postmodern ethics offers a new perspective on debates surrounding the role of the intellectual in italian society and provides an original reading of two important italian contemporary writers leonardo sciascia and antonio tabucchi it examines the ways in which the two writers use literature to engage with their socio political environment in a climate informed by the doubts and scepticism of postmodernism after traditional forms of impegno had been abandoned postmodern ethics explores ways in which tabucchi and sciascia further their engagement through embracing the very factors which problematized traditional committed writing such as the absence of fixed truths the inability of language to fully communicate ideas and intertextuality postmodern ethics provides an innovative new reading of tabucchi s works it challenges the standard view in critical literature that his writing may be divided into engaged texts which dialogue with society and postmodern texts which focus on literary interiority suggesting instead that socio political engagement underpins all of his works it also offers a new lens on sciascia s writing unpacking why sciascia unlike his contemporaries is able to maintain a belief in literature as a means of dialoguing with society postmodern ethics explores the ways in which tabucchi and sciascia approach issues of terrorism justice the anti mafia movement immigration and the value of reading in connected yet distinct ways suggesting that a close genealogy may be drawn between these two key intellectual figures

A New Dictionary of the Italian and English Languages 2023-07-22 a keen and brilliant critical account of pasolini s films and writings italica rohdie s personal idiosyncratic critical style is backed up by serious scholarly research as the rich bibliography attests this is one of the most original recent additions to the ever growing literature on pasolini choice refreshingly personal and full of unpredictable tangents film quarterly sam rohdie has written a personal wonderfully lucid account of pier paolo pasolini s cinema and literature

Aufstieg und Niedergang der römischen Welt: Principat. v 1994 this book takes its start from a series of attempts to use caravaggio s works for contemporary humanitarian communications how did his sleeping cupid 1608 end up on the island of lampedusa at the heart of the mediterranean migrant crisis and why was his painting the seven works of mercy 1607 requested for display at a number of humanitarian public events after critical reflection on these significant transfers of caravaggio s work francesco zuconi takes baroque art as a point of departure to guide readers through some of the most haunting and compelling images of our time each chapter analyzes a different form of media and explores a problem that ties together art history and humanitarian communications from caravaggio s attempt to represent life itself as a subject of painting to the way bodies and emotions are presented in ngo campaigns what emerges from this probing inquiry at the intersection of art theory media studies and political philosophy is an original critical path in humanitarian visual culture

Essential 25000 English-Italian Law Dictionary 2018-02-05 the renewed attention to the origin and shape of nationalist discourses has promoted many excellent studies devoted to examining the rich storehouse of cultural responses produced during and after risorgimento the political events that from 1859 to 1870 led Italy from being a fragmented peninsula to an independent and unified nation state however the assessment of risorgimento and its myths from the post world war II era to the present remains for the most part unexplored while it is undeniable that the dramatic economic social and political transformations that have characterized Italy from the second half of the twentieth century to the present have altered the role and function of nationalist narratives it remains equally true that interest in the risorgimento in modern Italian culture has not diminished

A New Dictionary of the Italian and English Languages Based Upon that of Baretta ...

Compiled by John Davenport and Guglielmo Comelati 1868 this volume analyses the complex relations between multilingualism and the media how the media manage multilingualism how multilingualism is presented and used as media content and how the media are discursive sites where debates about multilingualism and other language related issues unfold it is precisely this inter relatedness that we want to flag up when we talk about thematising multilingualism in the media more specifically the focus of this volume is on the empirical and theoretical opportunities and challenges posed by the thematisation of multilingualism in the media the volume originally published as a special issue of the journal of language and politics 10 4 2011 presents a number of case studies from a variety of linguistic media political social and economic contexts from print media debates on trilingual policies in Luxembourg to new media discussions about the sexiness of Irish or the national value of Welsh from issues of linguistic authority and authenticity in an American television programme to Wikipedia's multilingual policy and practice

Postmodern Ethics 2009-05-05 beginning with the chapters on warfare in the first three volumes of the new Cambridge Modern History Sir John Hale's writings on the subject present an original and rich assessment of war's place in Renaissance life and thought the first section of this collection constitutes a major contribution to the study of Renaissance fortifications their design planning and execution and their political as well as their military significance the second deals with the recruitment and training of officers and men in the third contemporary reactions to war are analysed in a variety of social and intellectual contexts the archival and literary sources drawn on are primarily Italian in the second place English but the imaginative scene is that of Western Europe as a whole

The Passion of Pier Paolo Pasolini 2019-07-25 this book sets out to establish the state of the art of screen translation and at the same time to underscore the work of scholars following new paths of investigation both in terms of innovative linguistic mediations being examined and pioneering experimental design the volume includes descriptions of sophisticated electronic databases and corpora of audiovisual products for the big and small screen and the rationale behind them furthermore between text and image also includes a number of cutting edge studies in audience perception of audiovisual products finally the volume does not fail to ignore examples of original research carried out from both a traditional linguistic viewpoint and from a more cultural perspective p 4 de la couv

The South Italian Volcanoes 1891 the contract for lease of goods is well known in practical life short time leases of cars to both businesses and consumers are perhaps the most striking example but contracts for temporary use of another person's goods in exchange for rent are common for a wide range of products like industrial equipment office machines leisure boats sports gear etc long term leases are often chosen as an alternative to other forms of acquisition of goods financial leases this book presents a set of principles of european law on lease contracts within the framework of the study group on a european civil code the principles are closely coordinated with other parts of what will become the draft common frame of reference for european contract law prepared for the european commission by several pan european research teams co operating in a network of excellence under the sixth research framework programme the principles are accompanied by explanatory comments and comparative notes containing information on lease law for 27 european countries as well as on relevant international instruments thus the book is a source to knowledge on existing law in addition to being a contribution to the analysis of the interplay between general contract law and the law of specific contracts as well as to the discussion of future european private law

Risorgimento in Modern Italian Culture 2005 the studies in this volume focus on works of art that generate bafflement and that make that difficulty of reading part of their rhetorical structure these are works whose subjects are not easily identifiable or can be readily associated with more than one subject at the same time works that take a subject into a new genre or format pagan into christian for example or vice versa and thus destabilize the subject itself works that concentrate on the marginal rather than the central episode and works that introduce elements of the preparatory phase the indeterminacy that are native to the sketch or drawing for example into the realm of finished works unable to settle on a single reading the effort of interpretation doubles back on its own procedures this aporia according to aristotle serves as the initial impulse to philosophical inquiry although the works studied here are in many ways exceptional the aporias they raise register larger structural problems belonging to the artistic culture as a whole between 1400 and 1700 we see the emergence of new formats new genres new subjects and new techniques as well as new venues for the display of art it is an implicit thesis of this book that the systemic shifts occurring in the early modern period made the emergence of aporetic works of art and of aporia as a problem for art a structural inevitability

Thematising Multilingualism in the Media 2013-06-12 the debates on gender and sexuality are widespread today many claim that a cultural war is being waged between conservatives who uphold the time honored values of family and sexuality and liberals who promote an agenda to redefine these traditional roles since the public is often uninformed about the science and philosophical currents undergirding the questions of gender and sexuality the pontifical athenaeum regina apostolorum organized an academic symposium in rome to shed light on the debate this book gathers the insights of that symposium which integrated the disciplines of medicine neuroscience psychology psychiatry history philosophy moral theology biblical studies law bioethics and pedagogy this work is aimed at catholics and all those who seek a more profound understanding of one of today s most important topics in the personalist approach of bioethics the natural law tradition distinguishes the person from his or her acts in the case of same sex attractions the church teaches clearly that the inclination is not in itself sinful and that persons with such attractions are deserving of respect and compassion in accord with their full human dignity nonetheless same sex acts are not natural or ordered the church strives to build bridges with the lgbt community by fostering a relationship of compassion sensitivity and mutual respect however real bridges also require honesty and openness to the truths that pertain to human sexuality procreation the family and the education of future generation
