REVIEW OF AGRICULTURAL TRADE POLICIES IN POST-SOVIET COUNTRIES 2015-2016 2018-11-05

the document is based on the publication review of agricultural trade policies in former soviet union countries 2015 16 available in russian the main economic and political factors influencing the patterns of agrifood trade in the region during 2014 generally continued to have an impact in 2015 and 2016 in particular a further slowdown in economic growth was observed in all countries during 2015 in addition the depreciation of all the national currencies against the us dollar and the euro which began in 2014 continued in 2015 and in some cases in 2016 due to weaker national currencies and falling consumer demand the total value of imports of agrifood products in dollar terms decreased in many countries the decline in demand for agrifood products in the region and lower international prices also contributed to the reduction in the value of agrifood exports from the region at the same time the last two years have been marked by stronger integration processes affecting agr ifood trade among several countries in the region

Survey of Economic and Social Developments in the Arab Region 2015-2016 2016-11-23

the economic and political uncertainty which has characterized the arab region in the wake of the 2011 transitions and upheaval continues to restrain the region s prospects for growth job creation and stability economic expansion remains stalled with persistently low global oil prices adding a further burden to the regional economy and constraining the growth and fiscal balances of those countries that had been top performers due to energy exports while some progress on social indicators such as gender representativeness can be noted countries in and affected by political transition and conflict have regressed on a plethora of socioeconomic indicators these trends can be noted for the past five years and with this in mind the 2015 16 survey will utilize recent data in order to take stock of the impact of instability and conflict and address the foregone growth and output and destructive effects of this period it also draws on recent research of escwa regarding migration social developments the impact of conflict women s empowerment and specific country level analysis
