zothique a mythical land of the far future is clark ashton smith s most carefully worked out fantasy realm and many of his most celebrated stories are set in this evocative world of languid decadence strangeness and sexuality beginning with the empire of the necromancers 1932 and extending all the way to the short play the dead will cuckold you 1956 smith fashioned zothique in tale after tale each adding new elements to the locale as we read the zothique tales we see how the imminent extinguishing of the sun has caused civilization to collapse paradoxically society has reverted to a kind of primitivism with the return of royalty superstition and sorcery this scenario allowed smith to engage in tongue in cheek archaism of both language and setting some of the most poignant stories he ever wrote stories that fused fantasy and the supernatural with a sense of aching loss and tragedy are set in zothique including the dark eidolon and xeethra other tales such as the weaver of the vault and necromancy in naat focus morbidly on death eroticism is the focus of the witchcraft of ulua and morthylla while the voyage of king euvoran is grimly humorous and the last hieroglyph is a fitting capstone to the series in its depiction of the ultimate destruction of the realm of all his story cycles zothique allowed clark ashton smith the widest scope for his imagination this volume presents his expression of that imagination in prose fiction drama and poetry all the texts have been scrupulously edited by leading smith scholar ron hilger and features a new introduction by donald sidney fryer
