the catnip diaries highlight sparkles progression from a kitten to a full grown cat it is done with word pictures describing plenty of cat adventures a smattering of philosophy and lots of humor my adoption of sparkles from the local animal shelter was therapy for me when i put my husband in a nursing home and our dog died my sister helen has her own cat and when we compared notes we decided we could probably write a book about their adventures most of the entries are fiction but we believe they could happen other characters in the book are fictional but they add depth and color to the diary entries anyone who is owned by a cat can visualize their own cats being just as naughty or nice when a year s worth of entries were on the books sparkles disappeared in my heart of hearts i believe sparkles was an angel sent to get me out of my depression sparkles loves his mommie

this project began several years ago as a simple family history and legacy to leave to my sons and grandchildren every family and generation has their unique stories to share it s sad but true that many of these stories are lost as the participants die we have all heard about the same old stories from the family s older folks many times and got bored with the reruns of some i hope to preserve these tales and histories perhaps a harsher example is the loss of the holocaust survivors oral histories and the world war ii veterans stories in history

Last First Kiss (La Fleur de Love: Book Two) 1884

look out for julie s new book the almost legendary morris sisters the bestselling memoirist shows how saving a dog can sometimes help you save yourself julie klam writes about dogs with a rollicking wit and a radiating warmth as no other writer can in her bestselling memoir you had me at woof she shared the secrets of happiness she learned as an occasionally frazzled but always devoted owner of boston terriers now with the same enchanting pop culture infused amalgam of humor and poignancy that reached the the new york times and the today show and won the hearts of readers across the country she returns with more humorous insight into life with canine companions klam focuses here on dog rescue and its healing power not only for the dogs who are cared for and able to find good homes but also for the people who bond with these animals klam became involved with rescue after years as an owner of purebred dogs she was looking for a way to help and participate in a community but she never imagined just how much she would receive in return the dogs she has rescued through the years have filled her life with laughter and contentment sorrow and frustration and they have made certain that she never has a dull moment along the way she has collected stories from friends who have also found that guiding dogs to nurturing homes made their own lives richer these experiences which show us that even in our smallest gestures we can make a big difference inspired love at first bark
