the sunday times bestseller tudor tells a family story like no other the tudors are a national obsession undoubtedly british history's most notorious family but beyond the well worn headlines is a family still more extraordinary than the one we thought we knew the tudor canon typically starts with the battle of bosworth in 1485 before speeding on to henry viii and the reformation but this leaves out the family's obscure welsh origins it passes by the courage of the pregnant thirteen year old girl who would help found the tudor dynasty and the childhood and painful exile of her son the future henry vii it ignores the fact that the tudors were shaped by their past those parts they wished to remember and those they wished to forget with this background leanda de lisle enables us to see the tudors in their own terms and presents new perspectives and revelations on key figures and events from the princes in the tower to the tudor queens a lively history of the ambitious tudor family it casts plenty of light on the strong women in the dynasty the times a telegraph history today and bbc history magazine book of the year acclaimed teaching pastor daniel grothe speaks to the sense of loneliness that many feel in today's age of hypermobility and noncommittal wandering reminding us of the ancient vow of stability and teaching us how we can lead a richer life of friendship community and purpose unlike previous generations that had to stay put many people today have unprecedented access to a lifestyle of mobility we can explore and bounce from place to place never settling down or making anywhere home and while it feels freeing to be able to try something new whenever we want whether it's a new job a new city a new group of friends or even a new church somewhere along the way we discover we're missing something we may be paying our bills and have a roof over our heads but we're lonely and unfulfilled disconnected and unsatisfied what's that all about what is the missing piece in the power of place pastor daniel grothe speaks to the human ache for home and makes a countercultural case for staying put he calls us to reject the myth of christian individuality and instead embrace the richness of commitment and community arguing that we must stay in one place as long as we can plant our lives and let roots take hold because only then can we experience the deep fulfillment friendship and fruitfulness god created us for
