pitched sweetness a sweetness that overwhelms francis a french journalist one evening at the corossol restaurant bar when the broken rich voice of lounge singer brune rises from the microphone brune s father judge berthier was assassinated guilty of maintaining integrity in a city where everything is bought six months after this disappearance brune wholly refuses to come to terms with what happened her uncle pierre a gay man who spent his youth abroad to avoid persecution refuses to give up on solving this unpunished crime alongside brune and pierre francis becomes acquainted with myriad other voices of port au prince including Èzèchiel a poet desperate to escape his miserable neighborhood waner a diligent pacifist and ronny the american at ease in haiti as in a second homeland drawing its power from the bowels of the city sweet undoings moves with a rapid electric syncopation gradually and tenderly revealing the richness of the lives within you will never find me thorkild christensen
